AFRICA

Africa my Africa

Africa of proud warriors in ancestral savannahs

Africa of whom my grandmother sings

On the banks of the distant river

I have never known you

But your blood flows in my veins

Your beautiful black blood that irrigates the fields

The blood of your sweat

The sweat of your work

The work of your slavery

The slavery of your children

Africa tell me Africa

Is this your back that is bent

This back that breaks under the weight of humiliation

This back trembling with red scars

And saying yes to the whip under the midday sun

But a grave voice answers me

Impetuous child that tree young and strong

That tree over there

In splendid loneliness amidst white and faded flowers

That is your Africa springing up anew

Springing up patiently obstinately

And its fruits bit by bit acquire

The bitter taste of liberty.
