6. (1) The life span of every originating process shall be 6 months. Renewal of originating process
(2) Where a Court is satisfied that it has proved impossible to serve an originating process on any defendant within its life span and a claimant applied before its expiration for renewal of the process, the Court may renew the original or concurrent process for three months from the date of such renewal. A renewed originating process shall be as in Form 7 with such modifications or variations as circumstances may require. Civil form 7
7. The Court may order two renewals in each case strictly for good cause and upon prompt application, provided that no originating process shall be in force for longer than a total of nine months. The chief registrar shall state the fact, date, and duration of renewal on every renewed originating process. Endorsement of renewal
8. Where an originating process is lost after issue, the Court may accept copy of the certified process in place of the lost one. Loss of originating process
9. (a) An originating process for service within jurisdiction may be issued and marked as a concurrent originating process with one for service within and for service outside jurisdiction. Concurrent originating process and service
(b) A claimant may at the issuance of an originating process or at any time during its life span, cause to be issued one or more concurrent originating processes each to bear the same date as the initial process marked "CONCURRENT" and have stated on it the date of issue.

ORDER 7
Service of processes

1. (1) Service of originating process shall be made by a Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff, Bailiff, Special Marshal or other officer of the court. The Chief Judge may also appoint and register any law chambers, courier companies or any other person or by electronic means mutually agreed to serve court processes. Persons to serve originating process
(2) Any person or corporate body serving a process pursuant to sub rule 1 above shall have the privileges and liabilities of an officer of the Court. The expenses of such special service shall be defrayed by the party on whose application he is appointed unless the Court in any case sees reason to vary this rule.

(3) Where a party is represented by a legal practitioner service of court process of which personal service is not required may be made on such legal practitioner or on a person under his control.

How to effect service

2. An officer of court or process server shall serve an originating process by delivering to the party to be served a copy of the process duly certified as provided by Order 6 Rule 2(3).

Service on legal practitioner

3. No personal service of an originating process shall be required where the defendant has authorized his legal practitioner in writing to accept service and such legal practitioner enters appearance.

Mode of service when not personal

4. All processes for which personal service is not expressly required by these rules or any applicable law either on an individual, company or business shall be sufficiently served if left with an adult person resident or employed at the address for service given under Order 4 Rule 6 or if served by any other means as the court may order.

Person under legal disability

5. (1) Where a person under legal disability is a defendant, service on his guardian shall be deemed good and sufficient personal service, unless the court otherwise orders.
Provided that personal service on a minor who is over 16 years of age living independently or doing business is good and sufficient.
(2) The court may order that personal service on a person under legal disability shall be deemed good and sufficient.

Prisoner or Detainee

6. Where a detainee or prisoner is a defendant, service on the head or other officer in charge of the station, facility or prison where the defendant is, or on an officer of the agency in charge of the station, facility or prison shall be deemed good and sufficient personal service on the defendant.

Partners

7. (1) Where persons are sued as partners in the name of their firm, the originating process shall be served upon any one or more of the partners at the place of business within the jurisdiction or upon any person having control or management of the firm.
(2) The service of the originating process shall be deemed good service upon the firm whether any of the members are out of the jurisdiction or not and no leave to serve an originating process against them shall be necessary:
(3) Where a firm has been dissolved to the knowledge of the claimant before the commencement of the action, the originating process shall be served upon every person within the jurisdiction sought to be made liable.

Corporation or company

8. Subject to any statutory provision regulating service on a registered company, corporation or body corporate, every originating process requiring personal service may be served on a registered company, corporation or body corporate, by delivery at the head office or any other place of business of the organisation within the jurisdiction of the Court.

9. (1) Where the suit is against a foreign corporation or company within the meaning of section 54 of the Companies and Allied Matter Act having an office and carrying on business within the jurisdiction, and such suit is limited to a cause of action which arose within the jurisdiction, the originating process or other documents requiring personal service may be served on the principal officer, representative or by leaving it at the place of business of such foreign corporation or company within the jurisdiction:
(2) Where a foreign corporation or company has complied with the provisions of Chapter 3 of the Companies and Allied Matters Act, personal service shall be effected on one of the persons authorized to accept service on behalf of the said company. Foreign Corporation or Company
10. Where a contract has been entered into within the jurisdiction by or through an agent residing or carrying on business within the jurisdiction on behalf of a principal residing or carrying on business out of the jurisdiction, an originating process in an action relating to or arising out of such contract may, before the determination of such agent's authority or of his business relations with the principal be served on such agent. A copy of the originating process shall be sent promptly by the claimant to the defendant at his address out of the jurisdiction. Legal agent of principal who is out of jurisdiction
11. (1) Where service of an originating process is required by this Rules or any other enactment and the court is satisfied that prompt service cannot be effected, the court may upon application by the claimant make such order for substituted service as may seem just. Substituted service
(2) Every application to the court for substituted or other service, or for the substitution of notice for service shall be supported by an affidavit setting forth the grounds upon which the application is made.
Where it appears to the court (either after or without an attempt at service) that for any reason prompt service cannot be conveniently effected, the court may order that service be effected either by:
- (a) delivery of the document to some adult inmate at the usual or last known place of abode or business of the person to be served; or
 - (b) delivery to some person being an agent of the person to be served, or to some other person, on it being proved that there is reasonable probability that the document would in the ordinary course, through that agent or other person, come to the knowledge of the person to be served; or
 - (c) advertisement in the Federal Gazette, or in some newspaper circulating within the jurisdiction; or
 - (d) notice put up at the principal court house, or some other place of public resort in the judicial division wherein the proceeding in respect of which the service is made is instituted, or at the usual or last known place of abode, or of business, of the person to be served.

(e) (i) E-mail or any other scientific device now known or later developed and courier service or any other means convenient to the Court.

(ii) Provided service by email is contemplated by parties in a written agreement or subsequently agreed by Counsel in the course of proceedings.

Substituted service by email

Where violence is threatened

12. Where a person to be served, alone or in concert with others, resists service or applies or threatens violence to the process server, the process server may leave the process within the reach of person to be served, and this shall be deemed good and sufficient service.

*Proof of service
generally*

Agreement as to service

2. Where parties have by their contract prescribed the mode or place of service, or the person that may serve or the person who may be served any process in any claim arising out of the contract, service as prescribed in the contract shall be deemed good and sufficient service.

Service abroad by letter of request

3. Where leave is granted to serve an originating process in any foreign country with which no convention in that behalf has been made, the following procedure may be adopted;

Civil Form 8

(a) The process to be served shall be sealed with the seal of the court for service outside Nigeria, and shall be transmitted to the Solicitor General of the Federation by the Chief Registrar, with a copy translated, if not in English, into the language of that country and with a request for its further transmission to the appropriate authority. The request shall be as in Form 8 with such modifications or variations as circumstances may require;

Civil Form 9

(b) A party wishing to serve a process under this rule shall file a praecipe as in Form 9 with such modifications or variations as circumstances may require;

(c) A certificate, declaration, affidavit or other notification of service transmitted to the court through diplomatic channels by a court or other appropriate authority of the foreign country, shall be deemed good and sufficient proof of service;

Civil Form 10

(d) Where a certificate, declaration, affidavit or other notification transmitted as aforesaid states that efforts to serve a process have failed, the court may, on an ex parte application, order substituted service. The process, a copy, the order for substituted service, and a request as in Form 10 with such modifications or variations as circumstances may require shall be sealed and transmitted to the Solicitor General of the Federation;

Notwithstanding the foregoing provision a claimant may with leave of court serve any originating process by courier.

These provisions shall not affect the powers of a court in cases (the court) where lands, funds, choses in action, rights or property within jurisdiction are sought to be dealt with or affected. The court may, without assuming jurisdiction, over any person outside jurisdiction, cause such person to be informed of the nature or existence of the proceedings with a view to such person having an opportunity of claiming, opposing or otherwise intervening.

Where leave is not granted or not required

4. (1) where leave is granted or is not required in a civil suit and it is desired to serve any process in a foreign country with which a convention in that behalf has been made, the following procedure shall subject to any special provision contained in the convention, be adopted.

(a) The party desiring such service shall file in the registry a request as in Form 11 with such modifications or variations as circumstances may require and the request shall state the medium through which it is desired that service shall be effected, either;

Civil Form 11

(i) Directly through diplomatic channels or

(ii) Through the foreign judicial authority;

(b) The request shall be accompanied by the original document and a translation in the language of the country in which service is to be effected, certified by or on behalf of the person making the request, and a copy of each for every person to be served and any further copies which the convention may require (unless the service is required to be made on a Nigerian subject directly through diplomatic channels in which case the translation and copies need not accompany the request unless the convention expressly requires that they should do so);

(c) The documents to be served shall be sealed with the seal of the court for use out of the jurisdiction and shall be forwarded by the chief registrar to the permanent secretary, federal ministry of foreign affairs for onward transmission to the foreign country;

(d) An official certificate, transmitted through the Nigerian diplomatic agent to the court, establishing the fact and the date of the service of the document, shall be deemed to be sufficient proof of service within the requirements of these rules.

(2) The court, in granting leave to serve a process out of jurisdiction under this order, may upon request therefore in appropriate case direct that courier shall be used by the party effecting service.

5. Where in any civil or commercial matter pending before a court or tribunal of a foreign country a letter of request from such court or tribunal for service on any person or citation in such matter is transmitted to the court by the Attorney-General of the Federation stating that it is desirable that effect be given to it, the following procedure shall be adopted:

Service of foreign process

(a) The letter of request for service shall be accompanied by two copies of the process or citation in English and two translated copies to be served.

(b) Service of the process or citation shall be effected by a process server unless the court otherwise directs;

(c) Service shall be effected by delivering to and leaving with the person to be served a copy of the process or citation, and a translated copy in accordance with the rules and practice of the court.

(d) The process server shall file an affidavit of service after service has been effected which shall include particulars of charges for the cost of effecting the service. The affidavit shall be transmitted to the chief registrar with one copy of the process annexed;

(e) The registrar shall examine and verify the particulars of charges, approve or vary it (a lesser figure),

Where a defendant is added or substituted the originating process shall be amended accordingly and the claimant shall unless otherwise ordered by the court file an amended originating process and cause the new defendant to be served in the same manner as the original defendant. Where defendant is added
21. (1) Where it appears to the court that any person not a party in the proceedings may bear eventual liability either in whole or in part, the court may upon an ex parte application allow that person to be joined as a Third Party by any of the defendants. The application shall state the grounds for the applicant's belief that such third party may bear eventual liability. Third parties may be joined by any of the parties
(2) The order and existing processes shall be served on the third party within the time prescribed for delivering the defence.
22. Where a party is joined to any proceeding as a third party he may after service enter appearance within 8 days and not later than 35 days if he resides or carries on business outside jurisdiction or within such further time as the court may order. Appearance by third party
23. If a third party duly served with the order and all processes does not enter an appearance or defaults in filing any pleading, he shall be deemed to admit the validity of and shall be bound by any judgment given in the action whether by consent or otherwise. Default by third party
24. Party joined as a third party in any proceedings may join any other party in the same manner as he was joined and the expression "third party" shall apply to and include every person so joined. Subsequent third party

II. Actions against firms and persons carrying on business in names other than their own.

25. Any two or more persons claiming or alleged to be liable as partners and doing business within the jurisdiction may sue or be sued in the name of the firms, if any, of which they were partners when the cause of action arose and any party to an action may in such case apply to the court for a statement of the names and addresses of the persons who were partners in the firm when the cause of action arose, to be furnished in such manner, and verified on oath or otherwise as the court may direct. Action by and against firms
26. (1) When an originating process is issued by partners in the name of their firm, the claimants or their legal practitioners shall, on demand in writing by or on behalf of any defendant declare in writing the names and residential addresses of all the persons constituting the firm on whose behalf the action is brought. Disclosure of partners names
(2) Where the claimants or their legal practitioners fail to comply with such demand, all proceedings in the action may, upon an application for that purpose, be stayed upon such terms as the court may direct.
(3) Where the names of the partners are so declared, the suit shall proceed in the same manner and the same consequences in all respects shall follow as if they had been named as claimants in the originating process provided that the proceedings may continue in the name of the firm.

- Appearance of partners 27. (1) Where persons are sued as partners in the name of their firm, they shall appear individually in their own names; but all subsequent proceedings shall continue in the name of the firm.
(2) Where an originating process is served upon a person having the control or management of the partnership business no appearance by him shall be necessary unless he is a member of the firm sued.
- Application of rules to actions between co-partners 28. The above rules in this Part shall apply to proceedings between a firm and one or more of its partners and between firms having one or more partners in common, provided such firm or firms carry on business within the jurisdiction.
- Person trading as firm 29. - Order to carry on proceedings 31. (1) Where by reason of death or bankruptcy, or any other event occurring after the commencement of a proceeding and causing a change or transmission of interest or liability, or by reason of any person interested coming into existence after the commencement of the proceedings, it becomes necessary or desirable that any person not already a party should be made a party or that any person already a party should be made a party in another capacity, an order that the proceedings shall be carried on between the continuing parties and such new party or parties may be obtained ex parte upon an allegation of such change, or transmission of interest or liability, or of any such person interested having come into existence.
(2) An order obtained under this rule shall be served upon the continuing party or parties, or their legal practitioner and upon such new party unless the person making the application is the new party.
(3) Every person served who is not already a party to the proceedings shall where applicable enter an appearance within the same time and in the same manner as if he had been served with the originating process, and shall be served with the originating and all processes.

(4) Any party served under this rule who was not already a party to the proceedings shall file his pleadings and other documents as if he had been an original party to the proceedings.

32. In case of an assignment, creation or devolution of any estate or title pendente lite, the cause or matter may be continued by or against the person to or upon whom such estate or title has inured or devolved. Assignment creation or devolution of estate or title
33. Where any person who is under no legal disability or being under any legal disability but having a guardian in the proceedings is served with an order under Rule 30, such person may apply to the court within 14 days from the service of the order to discharge or vary such order. . Application to discharge order by persons under disability having a guardian
34. Where any person under any legal disability and not having a guardian in the proceedings is served with an order under Rule 30, such a person may apply to the court within 14 days from the appointment of the guardian for such party to discharge or vary such order and until such period has expired the order shall have no effect as against the person under legal disability. By persons under disability having no guardian

IV. Legal Practitioners or Agents

35. Where by these rules any act may be done by any party in any proceedings, such act may be done either by the party in person, or by his legal practitioner, or by his agent (unless an agent is expressly barred under these rules). Acts may be done by legal practitioner or agent

Joinder of Causes of Action

1. Subject to the provisions of these rules, the claimant may join in the same action several causes of action; but if it appears that they cannot be conveniently tried or disposed of together the court may order separate trials of such causes of action or may make such order as may be necessary or expedient for their separate disposal. Causes of action may be joined
2. (1) An action for recovery of land may be joined with an action for declaration of title, mesne profit, arrears of rent or damages for breach of any contract under which the land or any part of it is held, or for any wrong or injury to the premises. Recovery of land

| 5. | (1) Every allegation of fact in any pleadings if not specifically denied in the pleadings of the opposing party shall be taken as admitted except as against a person under legal disability.
(2) A general denial in any pleadings shall not operate as denial of any specific fact in the pleadings of the opposing party. | Denial |
| 6. | Each party shall specify in his pleadings any condition precedent, the performance or occurrence of which is intended to be contested. | Conditions precedent |
| 7. | (1) All grounds of defence or reply which makes an action unmaintainable or if not raised will take the opposing party by surprise or will raise issues of facts not arising out of the preceding pleadings shall be specifically pleaded.
(2) Where a party raises any ground which makes a transaction void or voidable or such matters as fraud, limitation law, release, payment, performance, facts showing insufficiency in contract or illegality either by any enactment or by common law, he shall specifically plead it. | Defence grounds to be specifically pleaded |
| 8. | No pleading shall raise any new ground of claim or contain any allegation of fact inconsistent with the previous pleadings of the party. | Pleadings to be consistent |
| 9. | A party may by his pleadings join issues upon the pleadings of the opposing party and such joinder of issues shall operate as a denial of every material allegation of fact in the pleading upon which issue is joined except any fact which the party may be willing to admit. | Joinder of issue |
| 10. | Wherever the contents of any documents are material it shall be sufficient in any pleading to state its effect as briefly as possible, without setting out the whole or any part, unless the precise words of the document or any part are material. | Effect of documents to be stated |
| 11. | Wherever it is material to allege notice to any person of any fact, matter or thing, it shall be sufficient to allege such notice as a fact, unless the form or the precise terms of such notice or the circumstances from which such notice is to be inferred are material. | Notice |
| 12. | Wherever any contract or any relation between any persons is to be implied from a series of letters or conversations, or otherwise from a number of circumstances, it shall be sufficient to allege such contract or relation as a fact, and to refer generally to such letters, conversations or circumstances without setting them out in detail. If in such case the person so pleading desires to rely in the alternative upon more contracts or relations than one as to be implied from such circumstances, it may be stated in the alternative. | Implied contract or relation |
| 13. | A party may not allege in any pleadings any matter or fact the law presumes in his favour or as to which the burden of proof lies upon the other side, unless it has been specifically denied. | Presumption of law |

14. In every case in which the cause of action is a stated or settled account it shall be alleged with particulars but in every case in which a statement of account is relied on by way of evidence or admission of any other cause of action which is pleaded, it shall not be alleged in the pleadings.
15. No technical objection shall be raised to any pleadings on the ground of any alleged want of form.
16. The court may at the pre-trial conference in any proceedings order to be struck out or amended, any matter in any endorsement or Pleading which may be unnecessary or scandalous or which may tend to prejudice, embarrass or delay the fair trial of the action; and may in any such case, if the court shall think fit, order costs of the application to be paid as between legal practitioner and client.
17. (1) Wherever it is material to allege malice, fraudulent intention, knowledge or other condition of the mind of any person, it shall be sufficient to allege the condition of mind as a fact without setting out the circumstances from which it is to be inferred.
(2) Where in an action for libel or slander the defendant pleads that any of the words or matters complained of are fair comment on a matter of public interest or were published upon a privileged occasion, the claimant shall, if he intends to allege that the defendant was actuated by express malice, deliver a reply giving particulars of the facts and matters from which such malice is to be inferred.
(3) Where in an action for libel or slander the defendant alleges that the words complained of consist of statement of fact, they are true in substance and in fact, and where they consist of expressions of opinion, they are fair comment on a matter of public interest, or pleads to the like effect, he shall give particulars stating which of the facts and matters he relies on in support of the allegation that the words are true.
18. (1) The court may at any stage of the proceedings order to be struck out or amended any pleading or the endorsement of any writ in the action or anything in any pleading or in the endorsement, on the ground that:
- (a) It discloses no reasonable cause of action or defence as the case may be; or
 - (b) It is scandalous, frivolous, or vexatious; or
 - (c) It may prejudice, embarrass or delay the fair trial of the action; or
 - (d) It is an abuse of the process of court;
 - (e) The court may order the action to be stayed or dismissed or judgement to be entered accordingly as the case may be.
- (2) No evidence shall be admissible on application under paragraph (1) (a).
(3) This rule shall, so far as applicable, apply to an originating summons and a petition as if the summons or petition, as the case may be, were a pleading.

(4) No proceedings shall be open to objection on the ground that only a declaratory judgement or order is sought and the court may make binding declaration of right whether any consequential relief is claimed or not.

19. (1) Where a pleading subsequent to reply is not ordered, then, at the expiration of 7 days from the service of the defence or reply (if a reply has been filed) pleadings shall be deemed closed. Close of pleading
- (2) Where a pleading subsequent to reply is ordered, and the party who has been ordered or given leave to file fails to do so within the period limited for that purpose, then, at the expiration of the period so limited the pleadings shall be deemed closed.

This rule shall not apply to a defence to counterclaim and unless the claimant files a defence to counterclaim, the statements of fact contained in such counterclaim shall at the expiration of 14 days from the service or of such time (if any) as may by order be allowed for filing of a defence be deemed to be admitted, but the court may at any subsequent time give leave to the claimant to file a defence to counterclaim.

ORDER 16

court, the cost of proving such fact or facts which shall not be less than a sum of five thousand naira, shall be paid by the party so refusing or neglecting whatever the result of the proceedings, unless the court certifies that the refusal to admit was reasonable or unless the court at any time otherwise order or directs.

- Judgement or Order upon
admission of facts*
4. The court may, on application, at a pre-trial conference or at any other stage of the proceedings where admissions of facts have been made, either on the pleadings or otherwise, make such judgment as upon such admissions a party may be entitled to, without waiting for the determination of any other question between the parties.
- Cost of notice
where documents
unnecessary*
5. Where a notice to admit or produce comprises documents that are not necessary, the cost occasioned thereby which shall not be less than N5,000 (five thousand naira) shall be borne by the party giving such notice.

ORDER 21

Default of pleading

- Claim for liquidated
demand*
1. If the claim is only for a debt liquidated demand, and the defendant does not within the time allowed for the purpose, file a defence, the claimant may, at the expiration of such time, apply for final judgment for the amount claimed with costs.
- Default of one or several defendants*
2. Where in any such action as in Rule 1 of this Order there are several defendants, if one of them makes default, the claimant may apply for final judgment against the defendant(s) making default and issue execution upon such judgment without prejudice to his right to proceed with his action against the other defendants.
- Damages and detention of goods*
3. If the claim be for pecuniary damages or for detention of goods with or without a claim for pecuniary damages, and the defendant or all the defendants, if more than one, make default as mentioned in Rule 1 of this order, the claimant may apply to the court for interlocutory judgment against the defendant(s) and the value of the goods and the damages, or the damages only as the case may be, shall be ascertained in any way which the court may order.
- Default of one or more defendants*
4. When in any such action as in Rule 3 of this Order there are several defendants, if one or more of them make default as mentioned in Rule 1 of this Order, the claimant may apply to the court for interlocutory judgment against the defendant(s) so making default and proceed with his action against the others. In such case the value and amount of damages against the defendant(s) making default shall be assessed at the trial of the action or issues therein against the other defendants, unless the court shall otherwise order.

High Court of the Federal Capital Territory, Abuja (Civil Procedure) Rules 2018

5. Where the claim is for debt or liquidated demand and also for pecuniary damages or for detention of goods with or without a claim for pecuniary damages and includes a liquidated demand and any defendant makes default as mentioned in Rule 1 of this Order, the claimant may apply to the court for final judgment for the debt or liquidated demand, and may also apply for interlocutory judgment for the value of the goods and damages, or the damages only as the case may be, and proceed as mentioned in Rules 3 and 4. Debt or damages and detention of goods or damages
6. In an action for the recovery of land, if the defendant makes default as mentioned in Rule 1, the claimant may apply for a judgment that the person whose title is asserted in the writ of summons shall recover possession of the land with costs. Recovery of land
7. Where the claimant has endorsed a claim for mesne profits or arrears of rent in respect of the premises claimed, or any part of them, or damages for breach of contract, wrong or injury to the premises claimed upon a writ for recovery of land, if the defendant makes default as mentioned in Rule 1 of this Order, or if there be more than one defendant and one or more of the defendants make such default, the claimant may apply for final judgment against the defaulting defendant or defendants and proceed as mentioned in Rules 3 and 4. Claims for mesne profit, arrears or damages
8. (1) If the claimant's claim is for a debt or liquidated demand or for pecuniary damages only, or for detention of goods with or without a claim for pecuniary damages, or for any such matters, or for the recovery of land, and the defendant files a defence which purports to offer an answer to part only of the claimant's alleged cause of action, the claimant may apply for judgment, final or interlocutory, as the case may be, for the part unanswered. The unanswered part consists of a separate cause of action or is severable from the rest, as in the case of part of a debt or liquidated demand;
(2) Where there is a counterclaim, execution on any such judgment as above mentioned in respect of the claimant's claim shall not issue without leave of the court. Where a defence is filed to part of claim only
9. In all actions other than those in the preceding rules of this Order, if the defendant makes default in filing a defence, the claimant may apply to the court for judgment, and such judgment shall be given upon the statement of claim as the court shall consider the claimant to be entitled to. Defendant in default
10. Where in any such action as provided in Rule 9 of this Order, there are several defendants, if one of such defendants makes such default, the claimant may apply for judgment against the defendant, and proceed against the other defendants. One of several defendants in default
11. In any case in which issues arise in a proceeding other than between claimant and defendant, if any party to any such issue makes default in filing any pleadings, the opposing party may apply to the court for judgment, if any, on the pleadings he may appear to be entitled to, and the court may order Default of third party judgment to be entered accordingly or may make such other order as may be necessary to do justice between the parties.

*Setting aside default
judgment*

12. Any judgment by default whether under this Order or this Rule shall be final and remain valid and may only be set aside upon application to the court on grounds of fraud, non-service or lack of jurisdiction upon such terms as the court may think fit.

ORDER 22

Payment into and out of Court

*Payment into
and out of court*

1. (1) Where after service in any proceeding for debt or damages, a defendant envisages an intention to pay money into court in respect of the proceeding, he shall notify the chief registrar who will thereupon direct him to pay the money into an interest yielding account in a commercial bank and he shall file the teller for such payment with the chief registrar.
(2) Where a teller for payment is filed with the chief registrar, he shall give notice of the payment to the claimant who may apply to the court for an order to withdraw the amount paid.
(3) Where a defence of tender before action is set up, the sum of money alleged to have been tendered shall be brought into court.
(4) The defendant may without leave give a written notice to the chief registrar of an intention to increase the amount of any sum paid into court.
(5) Where the money is paid into court in satisfaction of one or more causes of action, the notice shall specify the cause(s) of action for which payment is made and the sum paid for each such cause of action unless the court otherwise directs.
(6) The notice shall be as in Form 16 with such modifications or variations as circumstances may require. The claimant shall acknowledge in writing within 3 days the receipt of the notice. The notice may be modified, withdrawn or delivered in an amended form by leave of the court on such terms as may be just.
(7) Where money is paid into court with denial of liability, the amount paid shall be applied so far as is necessary in satisfaction of the claim, and the balance, if any, shall on the order of the court be repaid to the defendant. Where the defendant succeeds on the claim, the whole amount paid into court shall be repaid to him on the order of the court.

Civil Form 16

Claimant may take out money

2. (1) Where money is paid into court under Rule 1, the claimant within 14 days of the receipt of the notice of payment into court, or where more than one payment into the court has been made within 14 days of the receipt of the notice of the last payment, accept the whole sum or any one or more of the specific sum in satisfaction of the cause(s) of action to which the specified sum(s) relate by giving notice to the defendant as in Form 17 with such modifications or variations as circumstances may require. The claimant shall be entitled to receive payment of the accepted sum(s) in satisfaction of the claim.

Civil Form 17

- (2) Payment shall be made to the claimant or on his written authority to his legal practitioner and thereupon proceedings in the action or in respect of the specified cause(s) of action (as the case may be) shall abate.
- (3) If the claimant accepts money paid into court in satisfaction of his claim, or if he accepts a sum(s) paid in respect of one or more specified cause(s) of action, and gives notice that he abandons the other causes of action, he may after 4 days of payment and unless the court otherwise orders, tax his costs incurred to the time of payment into court, and 48 hours after taxation may sign judgment for his taxed costs.
- (4) Where in an action for libel or slander, the claimant accepts money paid into court, either party may apply by summons to the court for leave to make a statement in open court in terms approved by the court.
3. If the whole money in court is not taken out under Rule 2, the money remaining in court shall not be paid out except in satisfaction of the claim or specified cause(s) of action for which it was paid under an order of the court which may be made at any time before, at or after trial. Money remaining in court
4. (1) Money may be paid into court under rule 1 of this order by one or more of several defendants sued jointly or in the alternative upon notice to the defendant(s). Several defendants
- (2) If the claimant within 14 days after receipt of notice of payment into court elects to accept the sums paid into court, he shall give notice as in Form 18 with such modifications or variations as circumstances may require to each defendant and all further proceedings in the action or on the specified cause(s) of action (as the case may be) shall abate. Civil Form 18
- (3) The money shall not be paid out except under an order of the court dealing with the whole cause(s) of action.
- (4) In an action for libel or slander against several defendants sued jointly, if any defendant pays money into court, the claimant may within 14 days elect to accept the money paid into court in satisfaction of his claim against the defendant making the payment and shall give notice to all the defendants as in Form 18 with such modifications or variations as circumstance may require. The claimant may tax his costs against the defendant who has made such payment in accordance with Rule 2 (3) of this order and the action shall abate against that defendant. Civil Form 18
- (5) The claimant may continue with the action against any other defendant but the money paid into court shall be set off against any damages awarded to the claimant against the defendant or defendants against whom the action is continued.
5. A person made a defendant to a counterclaim may pay money into court in accordance with the foregoing rules, with necessary modification. Counterclaim
6. (1) In any proceeding in which money or damages is or are claimed by or on behalf of a person under legal disability suing either alone or in conjunction with other parties, no settlement, compromise, payment or acceptance of Persons under legal disability

money paid into court, whether before, at or after the trial, shall as regards the claims of any such person be valid without the approval of the court.

(2) No money (which expression for the purposes of this rule includes damages) in any way recovered, adjudged, ordered, awarded or agreed to be paid in any such proceedings on the claims of any such person under legal disability whether by judgement, settlement, compromise, payment into court or otherwise, before, at or after the trial, shall be paid to the claimant, his guardian or his legal practitioner unless the court shall so direct.

(3) All monies so recovered, adjudged, ordered, awarded or agreed to be paid shall be dealt with, as the court shall direct. The directions given may include any general or special directions that the court may think fit to give, including directions on how the money is to be applied or dealt with and as to any payment to be made either directly or out of money paid into court to the claimant or his guardian for money paid or expenses incurred, for maintenance or otherwise for, on behalf of, for the benefit of the person under legal disability, or otherwise to the claimant's legal practitioner for costs or of the difference between party and party and legal practitioner and client costs.

and withdrawal of money from court

7. Every application on notice for payment into or transfer out of court shall be made on notice.

ORDER 23

Proceedings in Lieu of Demurrer

Demurrer
abolished

1. No demurrer shall be allowed.

Points of law
may be raised by pleading

2. (1) Any party may by his pleading raise any point of law and the court may dispose of the point so raised before, at or after the trial.

(2) Where in the opinion of a court or judge, the decision on the point of law substantially disposes of the whole action or of any distinct cause of action, ground of defence, set-off, counter-claim, or reply in part, the court may then dismiss the action or make such other orders as may be just.

Striking out of
pleadings

(3) A court or judge may order any pleadings to be struck out on the ground that it discloses no reasonable cause of action or answer, and where a pleading is shown to be frivolous or vexatious, the court or a judge may order the action to be stayed or dismissed, or judgement to be entered accordingly.

ORDER 24

Withdrawal or Discontinuance

Claimant may discontinue before defence

ORDER 29
References to Referees and Accounts

1. In any legal proceeding the court may at any time order the whole cause or matter or any question or issue of fact arising, to be tried before an official referee or officer of the court, notwithstanding that it may appear that there is a special or other relief sought or some special issue to be tried, as to which it may be proper that the cause or matter should proceed in the ordinary manner. Reference to referee
2. In any case in which a matter is referred to a referee the court shall furnish the referee with such part of the proceedings and such information and detailed instructions as may appear necessary for his guidance, and shall direct the parties if necessary to attend upon the referee during the inquiry. Instructions to referee
3. The referee may, subject to the order of the court, hold the inquiry at or adjourn it to any place which he may deem most expedient, and have any inspection or view for the disposal of the controversy before him. He shall, so far as practicable, proceed with the inquiry from day to day. General powers of referee
4. (1) Subject to any order made by the court ordering the inquiry, evidence shall be taken at any inquiry before a referee, and the attendance of witnesses to give evidence before a referee may be enforced by the court in the same manner as such attendance may be enforced before the court; and every such inquiry shall be conducted in the same manner or as nearly as circumstances will admit as trials before a court. Evidence
(2) The referee shall have the same authority in the conduct of any inquiry as a judge when presiding at any trial.
(3) Nothing in these rules shall authorise any referee to commit any person to prison or to enforce any order by attachment or otherwise; but the court may, in respect of matters before a referee, make such order of attachment or commitment as he may consider necessary.
5. (1) The report made by a referee under a reference order shall be made to the court and notice served on the parties to the reference. Reports made under reference order
(2) A referee may by his report submit any question arising for the decision of the court or make a special statement of fact from which the court may draw such inferences as it deems fit.
(3) On the receipt of a referee's report, the court may:
 - (a) Adopt the report in whole or part;
 - (b) Vary the report;
 - (c) Require an explanation from him;
 - (d) Remit the whole or any part of the question or issue originally referred to him for further consideration by him or any other referee;
 - (e) Decide the question or issue originally referred to him on the evidence taken before him, with or without additional evidence.
(4) When the report of the referee has been made, an application to vary the report or remit the whole or any part of the question or issue originally referred may be made at the hearing by the court for further consideration of the cause or matter, after giving not less than 4 days notice and any other application based on the report may be made at the hearing.

(5) Where on a reference under this Order the court orders that the further consideration of the cause or matter in question shall be adjourned until the receipt of the referee's report, the order may contain directions with respect to the proceedings on the receipt of the report and the foregoing provision of this rule shall have effect subject to any such directions.

| Taking of account | 6. The court may order or direct an account to be taken or by any subsequent order give special directions with regard to the mode in which the account is to be taken or vouched and in particular may direct that in taking the account, the books of account in which the accounts in questions have been kept shall be taken as prima facie evidence of the truth of their contents, with liberty to the interested parties to object. |
| Verification of account | 7. Where any account is directed to be taken, the accounting party shall make out his account and verify it by affidavit. The items on each side of the account shall be numbered consecutively, and the account shall be attached to the affidavit as an exhibit and filed in the registry. |
| Mode of vouching accounts | 8. The court may, upon the taking of any account direct that the voucher be produced at the chambers of the accounting party's legal practitioner or at any other convenient place and that only such items as may be contested or surcharged shall be brought before the court. |
| Surcharge | 9. Any party seeking to charge any accounting party beyond what he has by his account admitted to have received shall give notice to him, stating so far as he is able, the amount sought to be charged with particulars. |
| Accounts and enquiry to be numbered

Civil Form 24 | 10. Where by any judgment or order any account is directed to be taken or inquiries to be made, each such direction shall be numbered so that as far as may be, each distinct account and inquiry may be designated by a number and such judgment or order shall be in Form 24 with such modification or variations as the circumstances may require. |
| Just allowances | 11. In taking any account directed by any judgment or order, all just allowances shall be made without any direction for that purpose. |
| Expediting proceedings in case of undue delay | 12. If it appears to the court that there is any undue delay in the prosecution of any proceedings, the court may require the party having the conduct of the proceedings or any other party, to explain the delay and may make such order with regard to expediting the proceedings, the conduct, or the stay and as to the costs of the proceedings as the circumstances of the case may require; and for these purposes any party may be directed to summon the persons whose attendance is required, and to conduct any proceeding and carry out any directions which may be given. |

Special Case

1. At the pre-trial conference parties may concur in stating the questions of law arising in their case in the form of a special case for the opinion of the court. Every such special case shall be divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively and shall concisely state such facts and documents as may be necessary to enable the court to decide the questions. Upon the argument of such case the court and the parties may refer to all the contents of the documents and the court may draw from the facts and documents stated in any such special case any inference, whether of fact or law, which might have been drawn from them if proved at a trial. Special case by consent
2. If at the pre-trial conference it appears to the court that there is in any cause or matter a question of law, which could be conveniently decided before any evidence is given or any question or issue of fact is tried, the court may make an order accordingly, and may raise such questions of law or direct them to be raised at the trial either by special case or in such other manner as the court may deem expedient, and all such further proceedings as the decision of such question of law may render unnecessary may be stayed. Special case by order before trial
3. Every special case agreed pursuant to Rule 1 shall be signed by the parties or their legal practitioners and shall be filed by the claimant or other party having conduct of the proceedings. Special case to be signed
4. An application to set down a special case in any cause or matter to which a person under legal disability is a party shall be supported by sufficient evidence that the statements contained in such case, so far as it affects the interest of such persons are legal. Application to set down where a person under disability is a party
5. (1) The parties to a special case may, if they think fit, enter into a written agreement (which shall not be subject to any stamp duty) that on the judgment of the court being given in the affirmative or negative on the questions of law raised by the special case, a sum of money fixed by the parties or to be ascertained by the court or in such manner as the court may direct, shall be paid by one of the parties to the other with or without costs as the case may be. Agreement as to payment of money and costs
(2) The judgment of the court may be entered for the sum agreed or ascertained, with or without cost, as the case may be, and execution may issue on such judgment, unless agreed or stayed on appeal.
6. This Order shall apply to every special case stated in a cause or matter and any incidental proceedings. Application of order

 - (c) The filing of any document; or
 - (d) Any act to be done by any officer of the court other than a legal practitioner, it shall not be necessary to draw up such order unless the court otherwise directs; but the production of a note or memorandum of such order signed by a judge shall be sufficient authority for such enlargement of time, issue, amendment, filing or other act. A direction that the costs of such order shall be cost in any cause or matter shall not be deemed to be special direction within the meaning of this rule.
3. An order shall be sealed, and shall be marked with the name of the judge by whom it is made. Form of order

ORDER 41

Transfers and Consolidation

I - Transfers

1. Where the chief judge has in exercise of any power conferred on him by any relevant enactment, order the transfer of any action or matter from a lower court to the High Court, a copy of the order duly certified by the registrar shall immediately be sent to the registrar of the lower court who shall transmit to the High Court the documents referred to in the relevant law and other necessary documents and processes. Order transferring proceedings to High Court

- | | | |
|--|----|---|
| Payment of filing fees | 2. | (1) On receipt by the court of the relevant documents and processes, the registrar shall notify the party who applied for the transfer or where the transfer was not made on the application of any party, the claimant, to attend at the registry and pay the fees for filing the documents. Such payments shall be without prejudice to the question of how the costs shall ultimately be borne.
(2) Such notification shall be effected by serving a notice personally on the party concerned, or where an address for service has been given by such party, at that address. |
| Duties of Registrar | 3. | (1) Upon payment of the prescribed fees, the registrar shall within 7 days:
(a) File the documents received from the lower court;
(b) Make an entry of the filing in the Cause Book; and
(c) Transmit the document to the chief judge or such other judge appointed by the chief judge.
(2) The registrar shall then give notice to the parties to attend in person or by counsel before a named judge on the day and at the time specified in the notice. The fees for the service of this notice shall be borne in the first instance by the party who has paid the fees for filing as provided by Rule 2 of this Order. |
| Direction | 4. | (1) The chief judge or such other judge appointed by him shall, not later than 14 days after receiving the documents referred to in Rule 3 of this order:
(a) Hear the parties or their legal practitioners;
(b) Take cognizance of the documents; and
(c) Give directions for the trial or hearing of the action or matter.
(2) Directions given under this Rule may include directions for the filing and service of pleadings. |
| Party failing to attend | 5. | (1) If the claimant fails to attend in compliance with a notice given under sub-rule 2 of Rule 3 of this order, the court shall record his default and may, suo motu or on application, dismiss the action or matter. Upon an application by a defendant to dismiss the action or matter the court may either dismiss the action or matter or make such other orders on such terms as he deems just.
(2) If a defendant fails to attend in compliance with a notice given under sub-rule 2 of Rule 3, the claimant may apply to enter judgment with costs or obtain the order prayed for in the transferred proceedings against that defendant(s). |
| Transfer where court has no jurisdiction | 6. | Where a court has no jurisdiction in a cause or matter the judge may by order transfer the cause or matter to a court with competent jurisdiction |
| Construction | 7. | In the preceding rule of this Order, the references to the claimant and the defendant shall in relation to proceedings commenced otherwise than by writ, be construed as references to the applicant and the respondent. |

II - Consolidation

8. (1) The court may on application consolidate several actions pending before it where it appears that the issues are the same in all the actions, and can therefore be properly tried and determined at the same time. Consolidation of actions
- (2) Where actions are pending before different judges, a party desiring consolidation shall first apply to the chief judge for transfer of the matter to the court before whom one or more of the matters are pending.
- (3)(1) An Order to consolidate may be made where two or more actions are pending between:
- (a) The same claimant and the same defendant;
 - (b) The same claimant and different defendants;
 - (c) Different claimants and the same defendant, or
 - (d) Different claimants and different defendants;
- (2) Where the claimant brings action against different defendants, they will not be consolidated without the consent of all parties unless the issues to be tried are identical.
- (4) Where an order for consolidation has been made, it shall be drawn up at the expense of the party or parties who applied for consolidation and shall be recorded in the Cause Book.

ORDER 42

Interlocutory and other Orders

1. (1) Whereby in any contract a prima facie case of liability is established and there is alleged as a matter of defence a right to be relieved wholly or partially from such liability, the court may make an order for the preservation or interim custody of the subject-matter of the litigation or order that the amount in dispute be brought into court or otherwise secured. Preservation or Interim custody of subject matter of disputed contract
- (2) An application for an order under Rule 1 sub-rule 1 of this Order may be made by the claimant at any time after his right appears from the pleadings.
2. When an application is made before trial for an injunction or other order and at any time before or during the hearing, it appears to the court that the matter in controversy in the cause or matter is one which can be most conveniently dealt with by an early trial, without first going into the merits on affidavit or other evidence for the purpose of the application, it shall make an order for such trial and such other order as the justice of the case may require. Early trial of cause
3. The court may on the application of any party make any order for the sale of any goods, wares or merchandise which may be of a perishable nature, or likely to injure from keeping, or which for any other just and sufficient reason may be desirable to sell at once by any person or persons named in such order in the manner and terms as the court may deem desirable. Order for sale of perishable goods

4. Detention, preservation or inspection of property
- (1) The court may upon the application of any party to an action or matter and upon such terms as may be just, make any order for the detention, preservation or inspection of any property or thing, being the subject of such action or matter or as to which any question may arise therein and for all or any of the purpose authorize any person to enter upon or into any land or building in the possession of any party to such action or matter, and for all or any of the purposes aforesaid authorize any samples to be taken or any observation to be made or experiment to be tried, which may be necessary or expedient for the purpose of obtaining full information or evidence.
- (2) Where an order for the inspection of any property or thing is made on an application under this rule (including an application made before any pleadings have been delivered in the action or matter) it appears that inspection was requested in writing by the application and was not given, then, unless the court is satisfied that the respondent did not unreasonably fail or refuse to permit the inspection, the court shall order the costs to be paid by the respondent in any event and except where the respondent is a "Poor Person", shall order the cost to be paid.
- Inspection by Judge*
- (3) The judge by whom any action or matter may be heard or tried, may inspect any property or thing concerning which any question may arise.
5. Sale of property in possession of court
- (1) Where any property is in possession of the court before or after judgment and it has remained so for a period of 12 months, the court may suo motu make an order for the sale of that property and the proceeds to be paid into an interest yielding account in a commercial bank directed by the court for the benefit of the person that succeeds at the trial or on appeal.
- (2) The money paid after disposal of any goods or chattel shall be withdrawn from the bank by the successful party who shall present to the chief registrar a certified true copy of the enrolment of the judgment.
6. Recovery of property other than land subject to lien
- Where an action or counterclaim is filed to recover specific property and the party from whom such recovery is sought does not dispute title but claims to retain the property by virtue of a lien or otherwise as security for any sum of money, the court may at the pre-trial conference order that the party claiming to recover the property be at liberty to pay into court, to abide the event of the action, the amount of money on which the lien or security is claimed and such further sum, if any, for interest and costs as the court may direct and that upon such payment into court being made, the property claimed be given up to the party claiming it.
7. Allowance of income of property pendent life
- Where any real or personal estate or property forms the subject of any proceedings and the court is satisfied that it will be more than sufficient to answer all the claims which ought to be provided for in such proceedings, the court may at any time after the commencement of the proceedings allow the parties interested or any one or more of them, the whole or part of the annual income of the real estate or a part of the personal estate or property or the whole or part of the income, up to such time as the court shall direct.

High Court of the Federal Capital Territory, Abuja (Civil Procedure) Rules 2018

8. In any action or matter in which an injunction has been or might have been claimed, the claimant may, before or after judgment, apply for an injunction to restrain the defendant or respondent from the repetition or continuance of the wrongful act or breach of contract complained of or from the commission of any injury relating to the same property or right or arising out of the same contract and the court may grant the injunction upon or without terms as may be just. Injunction against repetition of wrongful act for breach of contract
9. In every case in which an application is made for the appointment of a receiver by way of equitable execution, the court in determining whether such appointment is just or convenient shall have regards to the amount of the debt claimed by the applicant, the amount which may probably be obtained by the receiver and to the probable costs of his appointment and may if it deems fit, direct any inquiries on these or other matters before making the appointment. Appointment of a receiver by way of equitable execution
10. Where an order is made directing a receiver to be appointed, unless otherwise ordered, the person to be appointed shall first give security, to be approved by the court, duly to account for what he shall receive as such receiver, and to pay it as the court shall direct; and the person to be appointed shall, unless otherwise ordered to be allowed a proper salary or allowance. The security to be given shall be by guarantee or by undertaking as in Forms 38 and 39 with such variation as circumstances may require. The undertaking shall be filed in the registry and form part of the record of proceedings until it has been duly vacated. Receiver's security and remuneration
Civil forms 38 & 39
11. Where any judgment or order is pronounced or made in court appointing a named person to be a receiver the court may adjourn the proceedings then pending, so that the named person may give security as in the last preceding rule, and may direct such judgment or order to be drawn up. Where receiver appointed in court: adjournment to give security
12. When a receiver is appointed with a direction that he shall pass accounts, the court shall fix the days upon which he shall (quarterly or at shorter periods) leave and pass such accounts, and also the days upon which he shall pay the balances appearing due on the accounts so left, or such part of them as shall be certified as proper to be paid by him. Any such receiver who neglects to leave and pass his accounts and pay the balances at the time fixed for the purpose, the court may from time to time when his subsequent accounts are produced to be examined and passed, disallow the salary claimed by such receiver and may also charge him with interest at a rate not exceeding 25% per annum upon the balances so neglected to be paid by him during the time it appears to have remained in his custody. Fixing days for receivers to leave and pass their accounts and pay in balances and neglect of payment

- (3) The court hearing an application for leave may allow the applicant's statement to be amended, whether by specifying different or additional grounds of relief or otherwise on such terms, if any, as he deems fit.
- (4) The court shall not grant leave unless he considers that the application has a sufficient interest in the matter to which the application relates.
- (5) Where leave is sought to apply for an order of certiorari to remove for the purpose of its being quashed any judgement, order, conviction or proceedings which is subject to appeal and a time is limited for the bringing of the appeal, the court may adjourn the application for leave until the appeal is determined or the time for appealing has elapsed.
- (6) Where leave to apply for judicial review is granted, then:
- (a) If the relief sought is an order of prohibition or certiorari and the court so directs, the grant shall operate as a stay of the proceedings

- to which the application relates until the determination of the application or until the court otherwise orders;
- (b) If any other relief is sought, the court may at any time grant in the proceedings such interim relief as could be granted in an action begun by writ;
- (c) The court may impose such term as to cost and as to giving security as he deems fit.
4. An application for judicial review shall be brought within 3 months of the date of occurrence of the subject of the application.
5. (1) where leave has been granted and the court directs, the application may be made by motion or by originating summons.
(2) The notice of motion or summons shall be served on all persons directly affected and where it relates to any proceedings before the court and the object of the application is either to compel the court or its officer to do any act in relation to the proceedings, or to quash them or any order made. The notice or summons shall be served on the clerk or registrar of the court and where any objection to the conduct of the court is to be made, on the court.
(3) Unless the court granting leave has otherwise directed, there shall be at least 7 days between the service of the notice of motion or summons and the day named for the hearing.
(4) A motion shall be entered for hearing within 14 days after the grant of leave.
(5) An affidavit giving the names, addresses, places and dates of service on all persons who have been served with the notice of motion or summons shall be filed before it is entered for hearing and if any person who ought to be served under this rule has not been served, the affidavit stating that fact and the reason for it shall be before the court at the hearing.
(6) If on the hearing of the motion or summons the court is of the opinion that any person who ought, whether under this rule or otherwise, to have been served has not been served, the court may adjourn the hearing on such terms, if any, as it may direct in order that the notice or summons may be served on that person.
6. (1) Copies of the statement in support of an application for leave under rule 3 shall be served with the notice of motion or summons and subject to sub-rule 2, no grounds shall be relied upon or any relief sought at the hearing except the grounds and reliefs set out in the statement.
(2) The court may on the hearing of the motion or summons allow the applicant to amend his statement whether by specifying different or additional grounds of relief or otherwise, on such terms, if any, as he deems fit and may allow further affidavits to be used if they deal with new matters arising out of an affidavit of any other party to the application.
(3) Where the applicant intends to ask to be allowed to amend his statement or to use further affidavits, he shall give notice of his intentions and of any proposed amendment to every other party.
- Time within which to bring application

(4) Each party to the application shall supply to every other party a copy of every affidavit which he proposes to use at the hearing including, in the case of the applicant, the affidavit in support of the application for leave under Rule 3.

- | | | |
|--|-----|---|
| Claim for damages | 7. | On an application for judicial review the court may, subject to Rule 2, award damages to the applicant if:
(a) He has included in the statement in support of his application for leave under Rule 3 a claim for damages arising from any matter to which the application relates; and
(b) The court is satisfied that if the claim had been made in an action begun by the applicant at the time of making his application, he could have been awarded damages. |
| Interlocutory application | 8. | Any interlocutory application in proceedings on an application for judicial review may be made to the court. |
| Hearing of application for judicial review | 9. | (1) On the hearing of any motion or summons under Rule 5, any person who desires to be heard on the motion or summons, and appears to the court to be a proper person to be heard, shall be heard notwithstanding that he has not been served with notice of the motion or the summons.
(2) Where the reliefs sought is or includes an order of certiorari to remove any proceedings for the purpose of quashing them, the applicant may not question the validity of any order, warrant, commitment, conviction, inquisition or record unless before the hearing of the motion or summons he has filed a copy of such verified by affidavit or account for his failure to do so to the satisfaction of the court hearing the motion or summons.
(3) Where an order of certiorari is made in any such case as is referred to in sub-rule 2, the order shall, subject to sub-rule 4, direct that the proceedings shall be quashed immediately on their removal into court.
(4) Where the relief sought is an order of certiorari and the court is satisfied that there are grounds for quashing the decision to which the application relates, the court may, in addition to quashing it, remit the matter to the court, tribunal or authority concerned with a direction to reconsider it and reach a decision in accordance with the findings of the court.
(5) Where the relief sought is a declaration, an injunction or damages and the court considers that it should not be granted on an application for judicial review but might have been granted if it had been sought in an action begun by writ by the applicant at the time of making his application, the court may, instead of refusing the application, order the proceedings to continue as if they had been begun by writ. |
| Obedience to an order of mandamus | 10. | No action or proceeding shall be brought or prosecuted against any person for anything done in obedience to an order of mandamus . |
| Consolidation of application | 11. | Where there is more than one application pending against several persons in the same matter and on the same grounds, the court may order the applications to be consolidated. |

ORDER 45
Jurisdiction of Chief Registrar

1. In this Order, any reference to the chief registrar means the chief registrar of High Court and includes the deputy chief registrar. Chief Registrar
2. The chief registrar may transact business and exercise authority and jurisdiction as may be transacted or exercised by a judge in the following matters: Business to be conducted by Chief Registrar

Service of garnishee order
 4. (1) Where on the further consideration of the matter, the garnishee does not attend or does not dispute the debt due or claimed to be due from him to the judgment debtor, the court may make an order absolute under rule (1), against the garnishee.

(2) An order absolute under rule (1) against the garnishee may be enforced in the same manner as any other order for the payment of money.

Garnishee absolute
 5. Where on the further consideration of the matter, the garnishee disputes liability to pay the debt due or claimed to be due from him to the judgment debtor, the court may summarily determine the question in issue or other that any question necessary for determining the liability of the garnishee be tried, without the need for any consent by the parties.

Determination of issue by the court
 6. Where in garnishee proceedings, it is brought to the notice of the court that some other person than the judgment debtor is or claims to be entitled to the debt sought to be attached or has claims to have a charge upon it, the court
- Where a third person makes claim* may order that person to attend before the court and state the nature of his claim with particulars thereof.

Compliance
as discharge of liability

7. Any payment made by a garnishee in compliance with an order absolute under this Order and any execution levied against him in pursuant of such order shall be a valid discharge of liability to the judgment debtor to the extent of the amount paid or levied notwithstanding that the garnishee proceedings are subsequently set aside or the judgment or order from which the arose is reserved.

1. Except for interlocutory appeals which shall be brought within 15 days, every appeal shall be brought by notice of appeal lodged in the lower court within 30 days of the decision appealed from and served on all other parties affected by the appeal. Time to bring notice of appeal
2. (1) The notice of appeal shall set out in full the reference number of the proceedings in which the decision complained of was given, the names of the parties, the date of the decision and the grounds of appeal.
(2) Where the appellant complains only of a part of the decision, the notice of appeal shall specify the part complained of; otherwise the appeal shall be taken to be against the decision as a whole.
(3) The notice of appeal shall give an address within the Federal Capital Territory, Abuja, where the lower court appealed from is situated, to which notices may be sent for the appellant by registered post.
(4) The notice of appeal shall be in Form 43, as in the Appendix and may be varied to suit the circumstances of the case but no variation of substance shall be made. Civil Form 43
3. (1) A registrar of the lower court shall, within 3 months of decision appealed from, prepare as many certified copies of the proceedings required for the consideration of the appeal as there are parties on record.
(2) Except where the fees for preparing the certified copies are remitted, a deposit decided on by the registrar as likely to cover the fees, shall be made by the appellant before the preparation of the copies. Copies of proceedings
4. (1) A registrar of the lower court shall within 7 days of preparing the certified copies send them to the registrar (appeals) of the High Court as the record of appeal, and the appeal shall be deemed to have been entered.
(2) The registrar (appeals) shall within 7 days of receipt of the records of appeal forward it to the parties. Time to transmit records of proceedings
5. The registrar of the court shall send to each party a notice of the date fixed for the hearing of the appeal. Hearing notice
6. The time prescribed in Rule 1 , may be enlarged at any time by the court on such terms as it may deem fit, after notice is given to the respondent by the appellant of his application for enlargement of time. Enlargement of time after service of notice of appeal
7. Where the time available to the appellant for the taking of any step has expired before such step has been taken or completed, the respondent may, on notice to the appellant, apply to the court to strike out the appeal, and the court may strike out, or enlarge the time for sufficient reason shown. Where time elapsed
8. All civil appeals from lower courts shall be heard by one judge of the court. Constitution of court hearing appeal

- | | | |
|--|-----|--|
| Time and place of hearing | 9. | The appeal shall come on for hearing at such time and at such place as the registrar of the court shall notify the parties. |
| Briefs of argument | 10. | Unless the court gives leave to the contrary:
(a) All appeals from courts below shall be heard and determined on briefs of argument filed and exchanged between the parties;
(b) The appellant shall file an appellant's brief within 21 days of the receipt of the records of appeal from the court;
(c) The respondent shall file and serve a respondent's brief within 14 days of service on him of the appellant's brief;
(d) The appellant may file a reply brief which shall deal with any new issue raised in the respondent's brief, within 7 days of the receipt of the respondent's brief.
(e) Every brief shall clearly identify the issues distilled from the grounds of appeal on the basis of which parties desire the court to determine the appeal;
(f) Any issue which is not covered by any ground of appeal shall not be considered by the court in its judgment. |
| Direction for departure | 11. | A court may direct a departure from these Rules in respect of compilation of records from the lower court upon the application of any party to an appeal. |
| Default of appearance by appellant | 12. | (1) Where on the day of hearing or at an appointed day of the case, the appellant does not appear, the appeal may be struck out, unless the court thinks fit, for sufficient cause to order otherwise.
(2) Where a respondent appears, the judgment shall be with costs of the appeal against the appellant, unless the court expressly orders, but if the respondent does not appear, the costs of the appeal shall be at the discretion of the court. |
| Default of appearance by respondent | 13. | Where on the day of hearing and at any appointed day of the case, the appellant appears, the court shall, whether the respondent appears or not, proceed to the hearing or further hearing and determination of the appeal and shall give judgment according to the merits of the case but if it appears or is proved to the court that the appellant has not complied with the requirements precedent to the hearing of an appeal, the court may dismiss the appeal with or without costs of appeal against the appellant. |
| Amendment of notice of appeal | 14. | The court, may allow an amendment of the notice of appeal upon such terms and conditions as it may think fit. |
| Affirmation of judgment | 15. | (1) A respondent may give notice that he intends at the hearing to ask the court to affirm the judgment of the lower court on grounds other than those stated by that court.
(2) The notice shall be accompanied by a clear statement of the grounds on which the respondent intends to ask the court to affirm the judgment of the lower court. |

- (3) Such notice and grounds shall be filed in court within 14 days of service on the respondent of the notice and grounds of appeal, and shall be served on the appellant or his legal practitioner.
16. (1) A respondent may file grounds of appeal against any part of the judgment of the lower court. Time to file respondent's grounds of appeal
(2) The grounds shall be filed by the respondent within 14 days of service on him of the appellant's notice and grounds of appeal, and shall be served on the appellant or his legal practitioner before the hearing.
17. (1) No objection on account of any defect in the form of stating any ground of appeal shall be allowed, unless the court is of opinion that the ground of appeal is so imperfectly or incorrectly stated such that it is insufficient to enable the respondent to enquire into the subject-matter or to prepare for the hearing. Defect of grounds of appeal
(2) Where a court is of opinion that an objection to any ground of appeal ought to prevail, it may, allow the ground of appeal to be amended upon such terms and conditions as it may think just.
18. (1) On an appeal from a decision of a lower court, no objection shall be taken or allowed to any proceeding in such court for a defect or error which might have been amended by that court, or to any complaints, summons, warrant, or other process to or of such court for any alleged defect in substance or in form, or for any variance between any complaint or summons and the evidence adduced in support in such court. Objection to notice of appeal
(2) Where an error, defect, or variance mentioned in this Rule appears to the court at the hearing of any appeal to be such that the appellant has been thereby deceived or misled, it shall be lawful for the court either to refer the case back to the lower court with directions to re-hear and determine it or to reverse the decision appealed from, or to make such other order for disposal of the case as justice may require.
19. No objection shall be taken or allowed, on an appeal, to a notice of appeal which is in writing or to any recognizance entered into under this Order for the due prosecution of the appeal for any alleged error or defect, but if the error or defect appears to the court to be such that the respondent on the appeal has been thereby deceived or misled, it shall be lawful for the court to amend it, and, if it is expedient to do so, also to adjourn the further hearing of the appeal, the amendment and the adjournment, if any, being made on such terms as the court may think just. Defects in notice of appeal or recognizance
20. A court may, where it considers it necessary that evidence should be adduced, either: Adducing evidence
(a) order such evidence to be adduced before the court on a day to be fixed; or
(b) refer the case back to the lower court to take such evidence, and may in such case either direct the lower court to adjudicate afresh after taking such evidence and subject to such directions in law, as the court may think fit to give after taking such evidence, to report specific findings of fact for the information of the court, and on any such reference the case shall, so far as may be practicable and necessary, be dealt with as if it were being heard in the first instance.

Additional evidence

21. (1) Where additional evidence is to be taken by a lower court and specific findings of fact reported, it shall certify the evidence to the court which shall then proceed to dispose of the appeal.
(2) The appellant or his legal practitioner shall be present when the additional evidence is taken.
(3) Evidence taken in pursuance of rule 18 of this Order shall be taken as if it were taken at the trial before the lower court.
(4) When forwarding to a court any additional evidence taken by a lower court in pursuance of Rule 20, the lower court may express its evidence and may also, if it is the same court against whose decision the appeal has been made, state whether or not it would have come to a different decision had the additional evidence been brought forward at the trial.

Fees
First Schedule

22. The fees in the First Schedule shall be chargeable in civil appeals except where they would have to be paid by a Government officer acting in his official capacity or where the lower court or the court waives or remits the fees on the ground of the poverty of the person chargeable where it appears that there are substantial grounds of appeal.

Allowances

23. Allowances may be made to witnesses in accordance with the provisions of the Schedule.

Application for stay of execution

24. (1) On an application made for stay of execution under any enactment establishing the lower court, the lower court or the court may impose one or more of the following conditions:
- (a) That the appellant shall deposit a sum fixed by the court not exceeding the amount of the money or the value of the property; affected by the decision or judgment appealed from, or give security to the satisfaction of the court for the said sum;
 - (b) That the appellant shall deposit a sum equal to the amount of the costs allowed against him or give security to the satisfaction of the court for the said sum;
 - (c) that the appellant shall, where the decision or judgment appealed from relates to possession of land or houses, give security to the satisfaction of the court for the performance of the decision or judgment in the event of the appeal being dismissed;
 - (d) That the appellant's property shall be seized and attached pending the making of a deposit or the giving of security, including a deposit or security for expenses incidental to the seizure and attachment;
 - (e) That the appellant's property shall be seized, attached and sold and the net proceeds deposited in court pending determination of the appeal.

- (2) An Order made on an application shall limit the time (not being more than 30 days) for the performance of the conditions imposed, and direct that in default of the performance within the time so limited execution may issue or proceed.
- (3) An application for stay of execution under the enactment establishing the lower court may be made at any time after lodgment of the notice of appeal and shall in the first instance be made to the lower court; but where execution has been ordered by the lower court the application shall not be made to the lower court but to the court.
- (4) The application may be ex parte but the court may direct notice of it be given to the other party to the appeal; and where an order is made ex parte the registrar of the court shall notify the other party of the order made.
- (5) Where an appellant proposes to give security instead of making a deposit, the application shall state the nature of the security and the name of the surety proposed.
- (6) A party dissatisfied with an order made by the lower court may apply to the court by motion with notice to the other party for a review of the order, and the court may then make such order as may seem just.
- (7) An appeal shall not operate as a stay of execution under the decision or judgment appealed from except as the lower court or the court may order; and no intermediate act or proceeding shall be invalidated except so far as either court may direct.
25. A court may make such Order as to the payment of costs by or to the appellant as it may consider to be just and the Order may be made also in any case where an appeal has not been entered into or prosecuted. Cost
26. (1) A court may, in special circumstances, on an application on notice supported by an affidavit, order the appellant to deposit such sum or give such security as may seem fit for respondent's costs of appeal including the costs incidental to the application. Security for respondent's costs of appeal
- (2) The order shall limit the time (not exceeding 30 days) within which the deposit or security shall be made, and may direct that in default of its being made or given within the time so limited the appeal shall without further order stand dismissed.
- (3) Where an appeal is dismissed the respondent shall be entitled to all reasonable costs occasioned by the appeal and the amount of such costs may be stated in the order in anticipation or may be assessed at any time by the court of its own motion or on application made ex parte or on notice, as the court may deem fit.
- (4) Where an appeal is dismissed the appellant shall take no further step or proceeding except by leave of the court for reinstatement of the appeal, which may be granted on such terms as may deem fit upon application by motion on notice given within a month of such dismissal.
- (5) Subject to the discretion of the court to grant costs where it seems proper on an application made under sub rule (1), costs shall not be granted to the applicant except where the net proceeds of execution levied on the appellant's goods are sufficient to satisfy the amount payable under the judgment or decision appealed from.

- | | | |
|------------------------------------|-----|--|
| Certification of judgment or order | 27. | (1) Where a case is decided on appeal the court shall certify its judgment or order to the lower court in which the decision appealed against was pronounced.
(2) The lower court to which the court certifies its judgment or order shall then make such orders as are conformable to the judgment or order of the court, and if necessary, the records shall be amended accordingly. |
| Enforcement of judgment | 28. | After the pronouncement of the judgment of the court, the lower court from which the appeal came shall have the same jurisdiction and power to enforce, any decision which may have been affirmed, modified, amended, or substituted by the court or any judgment which may have been pronounced by the court, in the same manner in all respects as if such decision or judgment had been pronounced by itself. |
| Enforcement of order | 29. | Any order given or made by the court may be enforced by the court or by the lower courts as may be most expedient. |
| Enlargement of time | 30. | A court may, if it thinks fit, enlarge any period of time prescribed by this Order. |
| Interpretation | 31. | In this Order-
“the lower court” means District Court and Area Court
“Judgement” includes an Order or a Ruling. |

| 5. | Every legal practitioner engaged to conduct a case before the court shall be deemed to be an officer of the court for purposes of such case. Where it shall appear that any legal practitioner has by any act of negligence or deceit induced his client to enter into or continue any litigation or has been negligent or tardy in the conduct of the case, shall on failure of his client to succeed in the litigation be liable to indemnify the client in damages of loss incurred by him in the litigation. | Liability of client to indemnify client |

ORDER 56

Costs

|--|----|---|
| Penalty for default of filing | 1. | (1) Where any party defaults in filing any court process other than a memorandum of appearance within the time prescribed under the provisions of these rules, such party shall pay the sum of ₦200 Naira Only for each day of default.
(2) Every application for enlargement of time shall be accompanied by proof of compliance with Rule 1 of this order.
(3) In fixing the amount of costs, the principle to be observed is that the party who is in the right is to be indemnified for the expenses to which he has been necessarily put in the proceedings, as well as compensated for his time and effort in coming to court. The court may take into account all the circumstances of the case.
(4) When costs are ordered to be paid, the amount of such costs shall, if practicable, be summarily determined by the court at the time of delivering the judgment or making the order.
(5) When the court finds it impracticable to determine summarily the amount of any costs which he has adjudged or ordered to be paid, all questions relating to it shall be referred by the court to a taxing officer for taxation. |
| Principles to be observed in fixing cost | | |
| Court to direct security for costs | 2. | In any cause or matter in which security for costs is required, the security shall be of such amount, time, manner and form as the court shall direct. |
| Security for costs by claimant temporarily within jurisdiction | 3. | A claimant ordinarily resident out of the jurisdiction may be ordered to give security for costs, though he may be temporarily resident within the jurisdiction. |
| Action founded on judgment or bill of exchange | 4. | In actions brought by persons resident out of the jurisdiction, when the claimant's claim is founded on a judgment, order, a bill of exchange or other negotiable instrument, the power to require the claimant to give security for costs shall be exercised at the court's discretion. |
| Bond as security for costs | 5. | Where a bond is to be given as security for costs, it shall, unless the court otherwise directs, be given to the party or person requiring the security and not to an officer of the court. |
| Cost at discretion of court | 6. | Subject to the provisions of any applicable law and these rules, the costs incidental to all proceedings in the high court, including the administration of estates and trusts, shall be at the discretion of the judge, and he shall have power to determine by whom and the costs to be paid. |
| Costs out of fund or property | 7. | The court may order any costs to be paid out of any fund or property to which a suit or proceedings relates. |
| Stay of proceedings till cost paid | 8. | Where the court orders costs to be paid or security to be given for costs by any party, the court may order all costs by or on behalf of that party in the same suit or proceeding connected with it, to be stayed until the costs are paid or | security given accordingly, but such order shall not supersede the use of any other lawful method of enforcing payment.

9. (1) Costs may be dealt with by the judge at any stage of the proceedings.
(2) Costs when ordered becomes payable within 7 days of the order. Failure to effect such payment attracts the sum of N100.00 daily and such daily penalty shall be paid into the court. However the court or the judge may further deny the defaulting party or his legal practitioner further audience in the proceedings. Stage of proceedings at which costs to be dealt with
10. In addition to any penalty payable for default under these rules, the costs occasioned by any application to extend the time fixed by the rules or any direction or order, for delivering or filing any document or doing any other act, including the costs of any order made on the application shall be borne by the party making the application unless the court otherwise directs. When costs to follow the event
11. The court in exercising his discretion as to costs shall take into account any offer or contribution made by any of the parties, payment into court and the amount of such payment. Matters to be taken into account in exercising discretion
12. (1) Where in any cause or matter anything is improperly or unnecessarily done or omitted to be done by or on behalf of a party, the court may direct that any costs arising from it shall not be allowed to him and that any costs occasioned by it to other parties shall be paid by him to them. Costs arising from misconduct or neglect
(2) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-rule 1 of this rule, the court shall for the purpose of that sub-rule have regard in particular to the following matters:
(a) The omission to do anything which if done would have been calculated to save costs;
(b) The doing of anything calculated to occasion or in a manner or at a time calculated to occasion unnecessary costs; and
(c) Any unnecessary delay in the proceedings.
(3) The court may instead of giving a direction under sub-rule 1 of this rule in relation to anything done or omission made, directs the taxing officer to enquire into it and if it appears that such a direction should have been given, to act as if the appropriate direction had been given.
13. (1) Subject to the following provisions of this rule, where in any proceedings costs are incurred improperly, without reasonable cause, by undue delay or by any other misconduct or default, the court, may make an order against any legal practitioner whom it considers to be responsible, whether personally or through a servant or agent : Personal liability of Legal Practitioner for costs
(a) Disallowing the costs between the legal practitioner and his client;
and

- (b) Directing the legal practitioner to pay to his client costs which the client has been ordered to pay to other parties; or
- (c) Directing the legal practitioner personally to indemnify such other parties against costs payable by them.

(2) The provisions of rule 13 sub-rule I shall apply where proceedings in court cannot conveniently proceed or are adjourned without useful progress being made because of the failure of the legal practitioner to;

- (a) Attend in person or by a proper representative; or
- (b) Deliver any document for the use of the court which ought to have been delivered or to be prepared with any evidence, account or generally to proceed.

(3) No order under this rule shall be made against a legal practitioner unless he has been given a reasonable opportunity to appear before the court to show cause why the order should not be made.

(4) The court may direct that notice of any proceedings or order against a legal practitioner under this rule shall be given to his client in such manner as may be specified in the direction.

(5) If, on the taxation of costs to be paid out of a fund, one-sixth or more of the amount of the bill for those costs is taxed off, the legal practitioner whose bill it is shall not be allowed the fees to which he would otherwise be entitled for drawing the bill and for attending the taxation.

|--|-----|---|
| Taxation of costs | 14. | Every bill of costs, other than a bill delivered by a legal practitioner to his client which falls to be taxed under the Legal Practitioners Act, shall be referred to the registrar for taxation and may be taxed by him or such other taxing officer as the chief judge may appoint. |
| Notice to other party | 15. | The party applying for taxation, shall file the bill and give notice to any other parties entitled to be heard on the taxation, and shall, if he has not already done so, supply them with a copy of the bill. |
| Power of taxing officer | 16. | A taxing officer shall have power to tax any cost the taxation of which is required by any law or directed by order of the court. |
| Supplementary powers of taxing officers | 17. | A taxing officer may, in the discharge of his functions on taxation of costs, take an account of any dealing in money made in connection with the payment of the costs being taxed, if the court; <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) Require any party represented jointly with any other party in any proceedings before him to be separately represented;(b) Examine any witness in those proceedings;(c) Direct the production of any document which may be relevant in connection with those proceedings. |
| Extension of time | 18. | (1) A taxing officer may: |

- (a) Extend the period within which a party is required by these rules to begin proceedings for taxation or to do anything in connection with proceedings before him;
- (b) Where no period is specified by these rules or by the court for the doing of anything in connection with such proceedings, specify the period within which the thing is to be done.
- (2) Where an order of the court specifies a period within which anything is to be done by or before a taxing officer, unless the court otherwise directs, the taxing officer may on such terms as he deems fit extend the period so specified.
- (3) A taxing officer may extend any such period as is referred to in the foregoing provisions of this rule although the application for extension is not made until after the expiration of that period.
19. Where a party entitled to be paid costs is also liable to pay costs, the taxing officer may;
- Power of taxing officer where party liable to be paid and to pay costs*
- (a) Tax the costs which that party is liable to pay and set off the amount allowed against the amount he is entitled to be paid and direct payment of any balance; or
- (b) Delay the issue of a certificate for the costs he is entitled to be paid until he has paid or tendered the amount he is liable to pay.
20. (1) A party entitled to require any costs to be taxed shall begin proceedings for the taxation of those costs by filing in the registry a bill of costs and obtain a date and time for the taxation. Such party shall give at least 7 days notice to every other party of the date and time appointed for taxation proceedings and at the same time serve a copy of its bill of costs to the other party if he has not already done so.
- Mode of beginning proceedings for taxation*
- (2) A notice under sub-rule 1 of this rule need not be given to any party who has not entered an appearance or taken any part in the proceedings which gave rise to the taxation proceedings.
21. (1) In any bill of costs the professional charge and the disbursements shall be entered in separate columns and every column shall be set out before the bill is left for taxation.
- Provisions as to bills of costs*
- (2) Before a bill of costs is left for taxation it shall be endorsed with:
- (a) The name or firm and business address of the legal practitioner whose bill it is; and
- (b) If the legal practitioner is the agent of another with the name or firm and business address of that other legal practitioner.
22. (1) If any party entitled to be heard in any taxation proceedings does not attend within a reasonable time after the time appointed for the taxation, the

(2) In such an application, the chief judge may request any court of the territory, to take measures and make orders expedient for the interim preservation of the property of the deceased within the territory, for the discovery or preservation of the Will of the deceased or for other purposes connected with the duties of the court under this Order and every court shall carry out any such request as far as practicable and report to the chief judge.

(3) No grant of administration with the Will annexed shall issue within 7 days of the death of the deceased; and no grant of administration (not with the Will annexed) shall issue within 14 days of the death.

Registrar to administer
appropriate forms

(4) In furtherance of any provisions under these Rules, the probate registrar shall administer such forms as he may deem appropriate.

Preservation of property

2. A court shall, where the circumstances of a case require, on the death of a deceased person, or as soon after as may be, appoint and authorize an officer of court, or some other fit person, to take possession of his property within jurisdiction, or put it under seal, and keep it until it can be dealt with according to law.

Unauthorized persons intermeddling
with property

3. Where a person other than the person named executor or administrator, or an officer of the court or person authorized by the court, takes possession of and administers or deals with the property of a deceased person, he shall, besides other liabilities he may incur, be liable to fine not exceeding ₦5,000.00 as the court, having regard to the condition of the person so interfering with the property and the other circumstances of the case, may think fit to impose.

Production of testamentary
papers

4. (1) A person having in his possession or under his control a paper or writing of a deceased, being or purporting to be testamentary, shall promptly deliver its original to the probate registrar.

(2) Where a person fails to deliver any paper or writing of any deceased person within 14 days after having knowledge of the death of the deceased, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ₦5,000.00 as a court having regard to the condition of the person so in default and the other circumstances of the case, thinks fit to impose.

Court may
order
production

5. Where it appears that a document of the deceased, being or purporting to be testamentary, is in the possession of, or under the control of any person, a court may in a summary way, whether a suit or proceeding respecting probate or administration is pending or not, order him to produce the paper and bring it into court.

6. Where it appears that there are reasonable grounds for believing that a person has knowledge of any document being or purporting to be testamentary (although it is not shown that the document is in his possession or under his control), a court may in a summary way, whether a proceeding for probate or administration is pending or not, order that the person be examined on the document in court, or on interrogatories, that he attends for that purpose, and after examination that he produces the document, and bring it into court. Examination of papers
7. A court may on its own or on the application of a person claiming an interest under a Will, give notice to the executors (if any) named in it, to come and prove the Will, or to renounce probate, and they, or some or one of them, shall, within 14 days after notice, come in and prove or renounce accordingly. Notice to executor to come in and prove
8. Where a person named executor in the Will of a deceased takes possession and deals with any part of the deceased's property and does not apply for probate within one month after the death, or after the termination of any suit or dispute on probate or administration, he may, independently of any other liability, be charged with contempt of court, and shall be liable to such fine, not exceeding ₦5,000.00, as the court thinks fit to impose. Liability of executor neglecting to apply for probate
9. A court shall require evidence, in addition to that offered by the applicant, where additional evidence in that regard seems to the court necessary or desirable to be ascertained: Identity
 - (a) the identity of the deceased or of the applicant; or
 - (b) the relationship of the applicant to the deceased; or
 - (c) any person or persons in existence with a right equal or prior to that of the applicant to the grant of probate or administration sought by the applicant; or
 - (d) any other matter which may be considered by the court relevant to the question whether the applicant is the proper person to whom the grant should be made, but the court may refuse the grant unless the applicant produces any of the requirement in sub-rule 9(a – c) or as may be required by the court.
10. (1) Where it appears to a court that some person(s) other than the applicant may have at least an equal right with the applicant to the grant sought, the court may refuse the grant until due notice of the application has been given to such other person(s) and an opportunity given for such person(s) to be heard on the application prior right. Court may refuse grant until all persons interested are given due notice
11. An applicant for a grant of letters of administration shall file in the court a true declaration of all the personal property of the deceased and the value of it, but for the purpose of the fees payable on letters of administration, the value of the property on which the grant is made shall not include - Value of property

- (a) Any gratuity payable by the Government of the Federation of Nigeria, or the Government of a State or the Federal Capital Territory, Abuja to the estate of any person formerly employed by either of such Governments or by a statutory corporation; or
- (b) Any sum of money payable to an estate from a Provident Fund, or Pension Fund established under the provisions of enactment.

Answers
required before
grant

12. (1) In no circumstance shall a court issue letters of administration until all inquiries which the court sees fit to make have been answered to its satisfaction.
(2) A court shall, however, afford reasonable facility for the obtaining of letters of administration as is consistent with due regard to the prevention of error and fraud.

Notice to prohibit grant

13. A notice to prohibit a grant of administration may be filed in the court.

Effect of notice

14. (1) A notice shall remain in force three months only from the day of filing, but it may be renewed from time to time.
(2) A notice shall not affect a grant made on the day on which the notice is filed.
(3) A person filing a notice shall be warned by a warning in writing delivered at the place mentioned in the notice as his address.
(4) Notices in the nature of citations shall be given as a court directs.

Form of suits

15. Suits for administration shall be instituted and carried on, subject to the same rules of procedure as suits for ordinary claims.

Testator may deposit Will

16. A person may, in his lifetime, deposit for safe custody in the court at Abuja his own Will, under his own seal and that of the court.

Custody of Will
of which probate is granted

17. (1) Every original Will, of which probate or administration with Will annexed is granted, shall be filed and kept in the probate registry, to secure at once the due preservation and convenient inspection of it.
(2) A copy of every such Will and of the probate or administration shall be preserved in a book kept for the purpose in the registry.

Will not to be given out without order
of court

18. (1) An original Will shall not be delivered out for any purpose without the direction in writing of the court where the Will is filed.
(2) A certified transcript, under the seal of the court of the probate or administration with the Will annexed may be obtained from the court.

Examination of
Will as to its executor

19. (1) On receiving an application for administration with Will annexed, the court shall inspect the Will, and if it appears to be signed by the testator or by some other person in his presence and by his direction, and to have been subscribed by two witnesses according to the enactments and shall not proceed further if the Will does not appear to be so signed and subscribed.
(2) Where a Will appears to be signed and subscribed, the court shall then refer to the attestation clause (if any) and consider whether the wording of it states the Will to have been, in fact, executed in accordance with those enactments.

20. (1) Where there is no attestation clause or the attestation clause is insufficient, the court shall require an affidavit from at least one of the subscribing witnesses, if either of them is living, to prove that the Will was, in fact, executed in accordance with those enactments. Proof of execution where attestation clause is defective
(2) The affidavit shall be engrossed and form part of the probate, so that the probate may be a complete document on the face of it.
21. Where on a perusal of the affidavit, it appears that the Will was not, in fact, executed in accordance with those enactments, the court shall refuse probate. Where Will not executed according to law
22. Where both subscribing witnesses are dead or if from other circumstances such an affidavit cannot be obtained from either of them, resort to such an affidavit shall be made to other persons (if any) present at the execution of the Will but if no such affidavit can be obtained, proof shall be required of that fact and of the handwriting of the deceased and of the subscribing witnesses and also of any circumstances raising a presumption in favour of a due execution of the Will. Evidence on failure of attesting witnesses
23. Where the testator was blind or illiterate, a court shall not grant administration with the Will annexed, unless the court is satisfied, by proof or by what appears on the face of the Will, that the Will was read over to the deceased before its execution or that he had at that time knowledge of its contents. Will of blind or illiterate testator
24. (1) A court, on being satisfied that a Will was duly executed, shall carefully inspect it to see whether there are any interlineations or alterations or erasures or obliterations appearing in it and requiring to be accounted for. Interlineations, erasures, obliterations
(2) Interlineations, alterations, erasures and obliterations shall be invalid unless they existed in the Will at the time of its execution or unless, if made afterwards, they have been executed and attested in the mode required by the enactments or unless they have been made valid by the re-execution of the Will or by the subsequent execution of some codicil.
(3) Where any interlineation, alteration, erasures or obliterations appear in the Will (unless duly executed or recited in or identified by the attestation clause), an affidavit in proof of an existence in the Will before its execution shall be filed.
(4) Where no satisfactory evidence is adduced about the time when an erasure or obliteration was made and the words erased or obliterated are not entirely effaced and can, on inspection of the Will be ascertained, they shall form part of the probate.
(5) Where any word has been erased which might have been of importance an affidavit shall be required.
25. (1) Where a Will contains a reference to a document of such a nature as to raise the question whether it ought or ought not to form a constituent part of Documents referred to in a will or annexed or attached

the Will, the court shall require the production of the document, with a view to ascertaining whether or not it is entitled to Probate and if it is not produced, a satisfactory account of its non-production shall be proved.

(2) A document shall not form part of a Will unless it was in existence at the time when the Will was executed.

(3) Where there are vestiges of sealing wax or wafers or other marks, on a Will, leading to the inference that some documents have been at some time annexed or attached to it, a satisfactory account of those documents shall be proved, or the production of the document shall be required, and if it is not produced, a satisfactory account of its non-production shall be proved.

Executor dying
without proving or not appearing

26. Where a person appointed executor in a Will survives the testator but either dies without having taken probate or having been called on by the court to take probate does not appear, his right of executorship wholly ceases and without further renunciation, the representation to the testator and the administration of his property may go and be committed as if that person had not been appointed executor.

Making of will or copy sworn to

27. (1) A Will or a copy of it, to which an executor or an administrator with the Will annexed is sworn shall be marked by the executor or administrator and by the person before whom he is sworn.

Codicils

(2) The provisions on Wills shall apply equally to codicils.

Viva voce
examination of persons making affidavit

28. (1) Where evidence is directed or allowed to be given by affidavit, a court may require the personal attendance of the deponent, if within the jurisdiction, before the court, to be examined viva voce on the matter of his affidavit.
(2) The examination may take place before an affidavit has been sworn or prepared, where a court thinks fit.

2. Grant of letter of Administration

Letter of Administration

29. (1) A court in granting letter of administration shall proceed as far possible, as in cases of probate.
(2) A court shall ascertain the time and place of the deceased's death and the value of the property to be covered by the letter of administration.

Administration
bond

30. (1) A person to whom letter of administration is granted shall give a bond, with two or more responsible sureties, to the probate registrar of the court, as a condition for duly collecting, getting in and administering the personal property of the deceased, such sureties shall be to the satisfaction of the probate registrar.
(2) A court may, if it thinks fit, take one surety only.
(3) The bond shall be in a penalty of double the amount under which the personal estate of the deceased is sworn, unless the court in any case thinks it expedient to reduce the amount.
(4) A court may also in any case direct that more bonds than one shall be given, so as to limit the liability of a surety to such amount as the court thinks reasonable.

High Court of the Federal Capital Territory, Abuja (Civil Procedure) Rules 2018

31. The probate registrar may, on being satisfied that the condition of a bond has been broken, assign it to some person and that person may then sue on the bond in his own name, as if it had been originally given to him instead of the probate registrar and may recover then, as trustee for persons interested, the full amount recoverable in respect of any breach of the bond. Assignment of bond
32. A person claiming to be a creditor or legatee, or the next of kin, or one of the next of kins, of a deceased, may apply for and obtain a summons from court requiring the executor or administrator, of the deceased to attend before the court and show cause why an order for the administration of the property of the deceased should not be made. Administration summons
33. (1) On proof of service of the summons or on appearance of the executor or administrator and on proof of all such other things as the court may direct, a court may, make an order for the administration of the property of the deceased. Order for administration
(2) A court may make or refuse the order, or give any special directions respecting the carriage or execution of it, and in the case of applications for the order by two or more different persons or classes of persons, may grant it to such, as the court thinks fit.
(3) Where a court thinks fit, the carriage of the order may subsequently be given to such person and on terms.
34. On making of an order, or at any time afterwards, a court may, if it thinks fit, make any other order which appear requisite to secure the proper collection, recovery for safe-keeping and disposal of the property or any part of it. Orders relating to property
35. In case of intestacy, where the special circumstances of the case appear to the court so to require, a court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of any person having interest in the estate of the deceased or of its own (motion), grant letters of administration to an officer of the court, to a consular officer or to a person in the service of the Government. Administration may be granted to officer
36. (1) The officer or person so appointed shall act under the direction of the court and shall be indemnified. Officer to act under direction of court
(2) A court shall require and compel him to file in the court his accounts of his administration at intervals not exceeding three months.
37. Where a person died intestate as to his personal estate or leaving a Will affecting personal estate, but without having appointed an executor willing and competent to take probate, or where the executor, at the time of the death of that person, is resident out of the jurisdiction, a court, where it appears necessary or convenient may appoint some person to be the administrator of the personal estate of the deceased upon his giving security, if any, as a court shall direct, and every such administration may be limited as the court thinks fit. Court may appoint person to be administrator

- Remuneration of Administrator
38. (1) A court may direct that any administrator (with or without the Will annexed) shall receive out of the personal and real estate of the deceased such reasonable remuneration as the court thinks fit, not exceeding a fee of ₦10,000.00 and in addition, a sum not exceeding 5% on the amount of the realized property or when not converted into money, on the value of the property duly administered and accounted for by him.
- (2) Where a court is satisfied that by reason of exceptional circumstances the administration of the property has required an extraordinary amount of labour to be bestowed on it, the court may allow for that property a higher rate of remuneration.

3. Administration of Estate of Foreign Citizens

- Securing and collection of estate
39. (1) Where a foreign citizen dies within the jurisdiction without leaving within the jurisdiction a widow or next of kin, or, if such person dies within a Government institution or had his usual place of residence there, the Magistrate having jurisdiction within that institution, or if he does not die within a Government institution or had not his usual place of residence there, then the Secretary of the Area Council in charge of the institution in which he died, shall collect and secure all moneys and other property belonging to the deceased and shall then request the Permanent Secretary Ministry of Foreign Affairs to inform the nearest consular officer of that country of the death of the deceased and transmit to him a list of the money and property of the deceased.
- (2) Where sub rule (1) applies, the Area Council Secretary may appoint any Administrative Officer attached to his Area Council or with his consent, any Magistrate or any Administrative officer attached to any other Area Council may act in his place.
- Application by consular officer or person authorized by him to administer estate
40. An application may be made to a court by a consular officer or by any person authorized by him in writing and under the consular seal, for leave to administer the estate of the deceased and the court may make or vary such order as to security for payment of debts and the method of administration as the court shall think fit.

4. Administration Generally

- Accounts to be filed
41. (1) Every person to whom a grant of probate or letters of administration has or have been made and every administrator appointed by the court shall, if called upon by the court, file in court the account of his administration and shall thereafter file such further periodic accounts as the court may direct until the completion of the administration.
- (2) An executor or administrator who fails within any such period to file his accounts as specified shall be liable to such penalty not less than ₦1,000.00 as a court may think fit to impose, and every such fine shall on non-payment be enforceable by distress, and failing sufficient distress, by imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.
- (3) Where an account is filed in court under this Rule, a court shall scrutinize the account and if it appears to the court that by reason of improper or unjustifiable entries or that the account is not a full and proper account, the court may give written notice to the person filing the account to remedy such defects within such time as the court may seem reasonable for the purpose, and on failure to remedy such defects within such time, the person who filed such defective account shall be taken to have failed to file an account within the meaning of this Rule, and proceedings may be taken against that person accordingly.

(4) A court may, on the motion of an interested party, or on its own, summon any executor or administrator failing to file account, to show cause why he should not be punished.

(5) A court may for good cause shown extend the time for such filing of accounts.

(6) An executor or administrator who has been granted an extension of time to file such accounts and who fails within such extended time to file such accounts, shall be liable to the penalty stated above and the procedure for bringing him before the court shall be invoked.

(7) It shall be the duty of the probate registrar to bring to the notice of the court the fact that any executor or administrator has failed to file his accounts as required by this Rule.

(8) The accounts shall be open free of charge to the inspection of all persons satisfying the probate registrar that they are interested in the administration.

(9) In this rule, the word “accounts” includes an inventory, an account of the administration, the vouchers in hands of the executor or administrator, and an affidavit in verification.

42. The duties and powers of a court by Rules 5, 6, 7, 9, 10, 11, 12, 14, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 28, 31, 38, 40, and 41 (1), (3), (5), (7) and (8), shall be undertaken by the probate registrar on behalf of the court subject to any directions which the chief judge may give, but a court shall have power, either on its own or on the application of an interested person, to review any undertaken by the probate registrar and on such review a court shall have power to cancel anything which may have been done by the probate registrar or make such order as may be just in the circumstances. Duties and powers to be performed and exercised by Probate Registrar
43. A court may refuse to entertain an application under Rule 42, where it considers that there is an unreasonable delay by the applicant in making his application. Court may refuse application
44. The grant of letters of administration under this Order shall be signed by the chief judge or a judge designated by him. Grant to sign by Chief Judge or his designate
45. (1) Where there are additional asset(s) not included in the Letters of Administration, an application for supplementary letters of administration could be made to the probate registrar by the administrators of the grant or their legal representative. Supplementary Letters of Administration or grant for additional assets
(2) An application may be made to the probate registrar by the executor of estate for the inclusion any property or asset not mentioned in the Will of the testator or any additional asset discovered after probate was granted to be included in the estate of the testator.

(3) The provisions of Order 64 Rule 17 shall apply to sub rule (1) and (2) of this Order as it relates to the requirement for a true declaration and valuation of properties and assets affected by this rule.

require an affidavit as to due execution from one or more of the attesting witnesses or if no attesting witness is conveniently available, from any other person who was present at the time the Will was executed.

(2) Where an affidavit cannot be obtained in accordance with sub rule (1), the Registrar may, if he thinks fit having regard to the desirability of protecting the interest of a person who may be affected by the Will, accept evidence on affidavit from any person he thinks fit to show that the signature on the Will is the handwriting of the deceased or of any other matter which may raise a presumption in favour of the due execution of a Will.

(3) Where a Registrar, after considering evidence –

- (a) Is satisfied that the Will was not duly executed, he shall refuse probate and shall mark the Will accordingly;
- (b) Is doubtful whether the Will was duly executed, he may refer the matter to the court on motion.

*Execution of Will of blind or
illiterate testator*

9. Before admitting to proof, a Will which appears to have been signed by a blind or illiterate testator or by another person by direction of a testator, or which for any reason gives rise to doubt as to the testator having had knowledge of the contents of the Will at the time of its execution, the registrar shall satisfy himself that the testator had such knowledge.

*Evidence as to terms, conditions and
date of Will*

10. (1) Where there appears in a Will any obliteration, interlineations, or other alteration which is not authenticated in the manner prescribed by law or by the re-execution of the Will or by the execution of a codicil, the Registrar shall require evidence to show whether the alteration was present at the time the will was executed and shall give directions as to the form in which the Will is to be proved, but this sub rule shall not apply to an alteration which appears to the Registrar to be of no practical importance.

(2) Where from a mark on a Will, it appears to a Registrar that some other document has been attached to the will or if a will contains any reference to another document in such terms as to suggest that it ought to be incorporated in the Will, the Registrar may require the document to be produced and call for evidence regarding the attachment(s) or incorporation.

(3) Where there is doubt as to the date on which a Will was executed, a Registrar may require such evidence as he thinks necessary to establish the date.

High Court of the Federal Capital Territory, Abuja (Civil Procedure) Rules 2018

11. Any appearance of attempted revocation of a Will by burning, tearing or other circumstance leading to a presumption of revocation by the testator, shall be accounted for to a Registrar's satisfaction. Attempted revocation of Will
12. A registrar may require an affidavit from a person he thinks fit for purposes of satisfying himself as to any of the matters referred to in rules 15, 16 and 17, and where an affidavit is sworn to, by an attesting witness or other person present at the time of the execution of a Will, the deponent shall depose to the manner in which the Will was executed. Affidavit as to due execution, terms, etc of will
13. Where it appears to a Registrar that there is prima facie evidence that a Will is one to which section 9 of the Wills Act, 1837, or an equivalent enactment in force in the Territory, applies, the Will may be admitted to proof if a Registrar is satisfied that it was made by the testator in accordance with the provisions of that enactment. Wills of persons on military service and seamen
14. Where evidence as to the law of a country or territory outside the Federal Capital Territory, Abuja, is required on an application for a grant, the Registrar may accept an affidavit from a person whom, having regard to the particulars of his knowledge or experience given in the affidavit, he regards as suitably qualified to give expert evidence of the law in question. Evidence of foreign law

- (dd) may be made in accordance with law applicable in the Federal Capital Territory.

Grants to Attorneys

38. (1) Where a person entitled to a grant resides outside jurisdiction, a grant may be made to his lawfully constituted attorney for his use and benefit, though limited, until that person obtains a grant, but where the person entitled is an executor, administration shall not be granted to his attorney without notice to other executors, if any.
- (2) Where a registrar is satisfied by an affidavit that it is desirable for a grant to be made to the lawfully constituted attorney of a person entitled to a grant and resident within jurisdiction, he may direct that a grant be made to the attorney for the use and benefit of that person, though limited, until that person obtains a grant.

Grants on behalf of infants

39. (1) Where a person to whom a grant ought be made is an infant, a grant for his use and benefit until he attains the age of 18 years shall, subject to sub rules (3) and (5), be granted -
- (a) to both parents of the infant jointly or to any guardian appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction; or
 - (b) if there is no guardian able and willing to act and the infant has attained the age of sixteen years, to any next of kin nominated by the infant or where the infant is a married woman, to any such next of kin or to her husband if nominated by her.
- (2) A person, nominated under sub rule (1)(b), may represent any other infant whose next of kin he is, being an infant below the age of sixteen years entitled in the same degree as the infant who made the nomination.
- (3) Administration for the use and benefit of the infant until he attains the age of eighteen years may be granted to any person assigned as guardian by order of a court in default of, or jointly with or to the exclusion of, a person mentioned in sub rule (1), and such an order may be made on an application by the intended guardian, who shall file an affidavit in support of the application and if required by the court, an affidavit of fitness sworn by a responsible person.
- (4) Where a grant is required to be made to not less than two persons and there is only one person competent and willing to take a grant under the preceding provisions of this rule, a grant, unless the Registrar directs, may be made to such person jointly with any other person nominated by him as a fit and proper person to take a grant.
- (5) Where an infant who is sole executor has no interest in the residuary estate of a deceased administration with the Will attached, for the use and benefit of the infant child until he attains the age of eighteen years shall, unless the Registrar directs, be granted to the person entitled to the residuary estate.

40. (1) Where one of two, or more executors is an infant, probate may be granted to the other executor or executors not under disability, with power reserved for making a similar grant to the infant on his attaining the age of 18 years, Grants where infant is co-executor
- and administration for the use and benefit of the infant until he attains the age of eighteen years may be granted under Rule 39, if the executors who are not under disability renounce or on being cited to accept or refuse a grant, fail to make an effective application accordingly.
- (2) An infant executor's right to probate on attaining the age of eighteen years may not be renounced by any person on his behalf.
41. (1) Where a Registrar is satisfied that a person entitled to a grant is by reason of mental or physical incapacity incapable of managing his affairs, a grant for his use and benefit, limited during his incapacity or in such other way as the registrar may direct, may be made - Grants in case of mental or physical incapacity
- (a) In the case of mental incapacity, to the person authorized by the court to apply for the grant; or
- (b) Where no person is authorized or in the case of physical incapacity, if the person incapable is entitled –
- (i) As executor and has no interest in the residuary estate of the deceased, to the person entitled to such residuary estate;
- (ii) As an executor having an interest in residuary estate of the deceased, to the person who would be entitled to a grant in respect of his estate if he had died intestate or to such other person.
- (2) Except a Registrar directs, no grant shall be made under this rule unless all persons entitled in the same extent as the person incapable have been cleared off.
- (3) In the case of mental incapacity, notice of intended application for a grant under this rule shall, except the Registrar directs, be given to the person alleged to be so incapable.
42. (1) Renunciation of probate by an executor shall not operate as renunciation of any right which he may have to a grant of administration in some other capacity unless he expressly renounces such right. Renunciation of probate and administration
- (2) Except a Registrar directs, no person who has renounced a grant in one capacity may obtain a grant in some other capacity.
- (3) A renunciation of probate or administration may be retracted at any time on the Order of the Registrar, but only in exceptional circumstances, may leave be given to an executor to retract a renunciation of probate after a grant has been made to some other person entitled in a lower degree.

Notice to Federal Capital Territory of intended
application for
grant

43. Where it appears that the Federal Capital Territory, Abuja, is or may be beneficially interested in the estate of a deceased person, notice of intended application for a grant shall be given by the applicant to the Attorney- General of the Federation, and the registrar may direct that no grant shall issue within a specified time after the notice has been given.

Guarantee as a condition

44. (1) A registrar shall not require a guarantee as a condition of making a grant except where it is proposed to make it –

- (a) Under Rule 15(i)(4), to a creditor or the personal representative of a creditor or to a person who has no immediate beneficial interest in the estate of the deceased but may have such an interest in the event of an accretion to the estate;
- (b) Under Rule 36, to a person or some of the persons who would, if the person beneficially entitled to the whole of the estate died intestate, be entitled to his estate;
- (c) Under Rule 38, to the attorney of a person entitled to a grant;
- (d) Under Rule 39, for the use and benefit of a minor;
- (e) under Rule 41, for the use and benefit of a person who is by reason of mental or physical incapacity incapable of managing his affairs;
- (f) To an applicant who appears to the registrar to be resident elsewhere than in the Federal Capital Territory, Abuja; or
- (g) Where the registrar considers that there are special circumstances making it desirable to require a guarantee.

(2) Despite a proposal to make a grant as above, a guarantee shall not be required, except in special circumstances, on an application for administration where the applicant or one of the applicants is the Administrator- General or a trust corporation.

(3) Every guarantee entered into by a surety for the purposes of this order, shall be as in Form 49, as in the Appendix.

(4) Except where the surety is a corporation, the signature of the surety on every such guarantee shall be attested by an authorized officer, commissioner for oaths or other person authorized by law to administer an oath.

(5) Except a Registrar directs -

- (a) If it is decided to require a guarantee, it shall be given by two sureties, except where the gross value of the estate does not exceed ₦1,000.00 or a corporation is a proposed surety and in these cases one will suffice;

- (b) No person shall be accepted as a surety unless he is resident in the Federal Capital Territory, Abuja;
- (c) No officer of the judiciary shall become a surety;
- (d) The limit of the liability of the surety or sureties under a guarantee shall be the gross amount of the estate as sworn on the application for the grant;
- (e) Every surety, other than a corporation, shall justify.

(6) Where a proposed surety is a corporation, there shall be filed an affidavit by the proper officer of the corporation to the effect that it has power to act as surety and has executed a guarantee as prescribed by its constitution, containing sufficient information as to the financial position of the corporation to satisfy the Registrar that its assets are sufficient to satisfy all claims which may be made against it under any guarantee which it has given or is likely to give.

45. (1) An application for the resealing of probate or administration with the Will attached granted by the court of a place not within the Federal Capital Territory, Abuja, shall be made by the person to whom the grant was made or by any person authorized in writing to apply on his behalf. Resealing
- (2) On any such application-
- (a) An Inland Revenue affidavit shall be lodged as if the application were one for a grant in the Federal Capital Territory, Abuja;
 - (b) The application shall be advertised in such manner as a Registrar may direct and shall be supported by an oath sworn by the person making the application.
- (3) On an application for the resealing of such a grant -
- (a) A Registrar shall not require sureties except where it appears to him that the grant is made to a person or for a purpose mentioned in Rule 44(1) (a) to (f), or except where he considers that there are special circumstances making it desirable to require sureties;
 - (b) Rules 8(4), and 44(2), (4), (5) and (6), shall apply with any necessary modifications; and
 - (c) A guarantee entered into by a surety shall be as in Form 50, as in the Appendix. Civil Form 50
- (4) Except by leave of a registrar, no grant shall be resealed unless it was made to such a person mentioned in Rule 37 (a) or (b), or to a person to whom a grant could be made under that rule.
- (5) No limited or temporary grant shall be resealed except by leave of the Registrar.
- (6) A grant lodged for resealing shall include a copy of any Will to which the grant relates or shall be accompanied by a copy of it certified as correct by or under the authority of the court by which the grant was made.
- (7) A registrar shall send notice of the resealing to the court which made the grant.
- (8) Where notice is received in the Registry from outside the Federal Capital Territory, Abuja, of the resealing of a grant made in the Federal Capital Territory, Abuja, notice of any amendment or revocation of the grant shall be sent to the court by which it was resealed.
46. Where a Registrar is satisfied that a grant should be amended or revoked, he may make an order accordingly, but in special circumstances, no grant shall Amendment and revocation of grant be amended or revoked under this Rule except on the application or with the consent of the person to whom the grant was made.

47. (1) A person who wishes to ensure that no grant is sealed without notice to himself may enter a caveat in the Registry.

Entry of caveat

Civil Form 51, & 52

(2) A person who wishes to enter a caveat (caveator), may complete Form 52, as in the Appendix, in the appropriate book at the Registry and obtain an acknowledgement of entry from the proper officer, or by sending through the post at his own risk, a notice as in Form 51 to the Registry in which he wishes the caveat to be entered.

(3) Where a caveat is entered by a legal practitioner on the caveator's behalf, the name of the caveator shall be stated as in Form 52.

(4) A caveat shall remain in force for 6 months from the date on which it is entered and shall then cease to have effect, without limitation to the entry of a further caveat or caveats.

(5) A registrar shall maintain an index of caveats entered in the registry and on receiving an application for a grant in the Registry he shall cause the index to be searched and shall notify the applicant in the event of a caveat having been entered against the sealing of a grant for which application has been made.

(6) A registrar shall not allow any grant to be sealed if he has knowledge of an effective caveat respecting it, but no caveat shall operate to prevent the sealing of a grant on the day on which the caveat is entered.

Civil Form 53

(7) A caveator may be warned by the issue from the registry of Form 53, as in the Appendix, at the instance of a person interested, the person warning which shall state his interest and if he claims under a Will, the date of the Will and shall require the caveator to give particulars of any contrary interest which he may have in the estate of the deceased and every warning or a copy of it shall be served on the caveator.

(8) A caveator who has not entered an appearance to a warning may at any time withdraw his caveat by giving notice at the registry and the caveat shall then cease to have effect, and if he has been warned, the caveator shall promptly give notice of withdrawal of the caveat to the person warning.

Civil Form 54

(9) A caveator who has an interest contrary to that of the person warning, may, within eight days of service of the warning upon him inclusive of the day of such service, or at any time after if no affidavit has been filed under sub rule (11), enter an appearance in the registry by filing Form 54, as in the Appendix, and making an entry in the appropriate book and promptly serve on the person warning, a copy of Form 54, sealed with the seal of the registry.

(10) A caveator who has no interest contrary to that of the person warning, but wishing to show cause against the sealing of a grant to that person, may, within 8 days of service of the warning upon him inclusive of the day of such service, or at any time after if no affidavit has been filed under sub rule (11), issue and serve a summons for directions, which shall be returnable before the registrar.

(11) Where a time limited for appearance has expired and the caveator has not entered an appearance, the person warning may file in the registry an affidavit showing that the warning was duly served and that he has not received a summons for directions under sub rule (10), and then the caveat shall cease to have effect.

(12) On the commencement of a probate action, the Probate registrar shall, for each caveat then in force (other than a caveat entered by the claimant), give to the caveator notice of the commencement of the action, and on subsequent entry of a caveat at any time when the action is pending, shall likewise notify the caveator of the existence of the action.

(13) Except a registrar directs –

- (a) A caveat in force at the commencement of proceedings by way of citation or motion shall, unless withdrawn pursuant to sub rule (8), remain in force until an application for a grant is made by the person shown to be entitled to it by the decision of the court in such proceedings and on such application, a caveat entered by a party who had notice of the proceedings shall cease to have effect;
- (b) Any caveat on which an appearance to a warning has been entered shall remain in force until the commencement of a probate action;
- (c) The commencement of a probate action shall, whether or not any caveat has been entered, operate to prevent the sealing of a grant until application for a grant is made by the person shown to be entitled to it, by the decision of the court in such action and on such application any caveat entered by a party who had notice of the action, or by a caveator who was given notice under sub rule (12), shall cease to have effect.

(14) Except with the leave of a registrar, no further caveat may be entered by or on behalf of any caveator whose caveat has ceased to have effect under sub rule (11) or (13).

48. (1) A citation shall be settled by the registrar before it is issued.

(2) An averment in a citation, and such other information as a registrar may require, shall be verified by an affidavit sworn to, by the person issuing the citation (the citor) or if there are two or more citors, by one of them, but the registrar may, in special circumstances, accept an affidavit sworn by the citor's legal practitioner.

Citation

(3) The citor shall enter a caveat before issuing a citation.

(4) Every citation shall be served personally on the person cited unless the Registrar, on cause shown by affidavit, directs some other mode of service, which may include notice by advertisement.

(5) A Will referred to in a citation shall be lodged in the registry before the citation is issued, except where the Will is not in the citor's possession and the Registrar is satisfied that it is impracticable to require it to be lodged.

(6) A person who has been cited to appear may, within 8 days of service of the citation upon him inclusive of the day of such service or at any other time if no application has been made by the citor under Rule 55 (5) and Rule 56 (2), enter an appearance in the Registry by filing Form 54, as in the Appendix and making an entry in the appropriate book, and shall promptly serve on the citor a copy of Form 54 sealed with the seal of the Registry.

Citation to accept or refuse to take a
grant

49. (1) A citation to accept or refuse a grant may be issued at the instance of any person who would himself be entitled to a grant in the event of the person cited renouncing his right to it.
- (2) Where power to make a grant to an executor has been reserved, a citation calling on him to accept or refuse a grant may be issued at the instance of the executors who have proved the will or the executors of the last survivor of deceased executors who have proved.
- (3) A citation calling on an executor who has intermeddled in the estate of the deceased to show cause why he should not be ordered to take a grant may be issued at the instance of any person interested in the estate at any time after the expiration of six months from the death of the deceased, but no citation to take a grant shall issue while proceedings as to the validity of the will are pending.
- (4) A person cited who is willing to accept or take a grant may apply ex parte to a Registrar for an order for a grant on filing an affidavit showing that he has entered an appearance and that he has not been served by the citor with notice of any application for a grant himself.
- (5) Where a time limited for appearance has expired and the person cited has not entered an appearance, the citor may in the case of a citation under –

Form of Guarantee for the Acts and Defaults of a Receiver (O.42.r.10)

In the HIGH COURT OF THE FEDERAL CAPITAL TERRITORY, ABUJA

In the Judicial Division

Suit No.

PARTIES

Re vs.

Guarantee for N Annual premium N

This guarantee is made theday of20.....
Between (XYZ) of(called “The Receiver”) of the first part, and
.....of(called “the surety”) of the second part and The President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria. By an Order of the High Court of the Federal Capital Territory, Abuja Judicial Division dated the .....day of 20..... and made in the above-mentioned action the receiver has been appointed to receive (and manage) (follow words of the order). And it was ordered that the Receiver should give security to the satisfaction of the Judge on or before the ... day of....20.....

The surety in consideration of the annual premium stated above at the request of the Receiver has agreed to issue this guarantee agreeable to the Judge as proper security pursuant to the court order.

Now this guarantee witnesses as follows -

1. The Receiver and the Surety jointly and severally covenant with the President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria and his successors that the Receiver shall and will from time to time account for what he has already received since the date of the order appointing him and shall further receive or for what since the date of the order appointing him he has or shall be or become liable to pay or account for as such Receiver (and manager) including as well every sum of money or other property received during the period for which he has been appointed. Also every sum of money or other property received for any extended period for which he may be appointed and shall pay or deliver every sum or property as the court or a judge may direct.
2. It is hereby mutually agreed as follows:

- a) If the Receiver shall not for every successive twelve months to be computed from the date of his appointment as such receiver as aforesaid or within fifteen days after the expiration of such twelve months pay at the office of the Surety the annual premium or sum of N..... then the Surety shall be at liberty to apply by summons in the action to be relieved from all further liability as surety under this guarantee except any damage or loss occasioned by any act or default of the receiver in relation to his duties as receiver (and manager) prior to the hearing and determination of such summons.
 - b) A statement under the hand of any registrar of the High Court of The Federal Capital Territory, Abuja of the amount which the receiver is liable to pay and has not paid under this guarantee and that the loss or damage has been incurred through the act or default of the receiver, shall be conclusive evidence in any action or information by the President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria against the receiver and surety or either of them or by the surety against the receiver of the truth of the contents of such statement and shall constitute a binding charge not only against the receiver and his personal representatives but also against the surety and his funds and property without being necessary for the President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria to take any legal or other proceedings against the receiver for the recovery and without any further proof being given in that behalf in any action to enforce this guarantee.
 - c) The liability of the surety under this guarantee is limited to the sum of N.....provided nevertheless that a registrar of the High Court may by his signature to the endorsement on this guarantee (in the form printed) reduce the said liability of the surety further or with the consent of the surety by an instrument in writing duly executed increase such liability as may be necessary and upon such endorsement this guarantee shall continue in full force but in that case the premium shall be correspondingly reduced or increased.
3. It is further agreed between the receiver and the surety as follows:
- (a) The receiver on being discharged from his office or ceasing to act as receiver (and manager) shall give written notice to the surety by registered post and also within 7 days of such notice furnish to the surety free of charge an office copy of the order, if any, of the judge discharging him.
 - (b) The receiver and his personal representatives shall at all times indemnify the surety and its property and funds against all loss, damage, costs and expenses which the surety or its funds or property may or might otherwise sustain by reason of the surety having executed this guarantee at his request.

High Court of the Federal Capital Territory, Abuja (Civil Procedure) Rules 2018

In witness, the receiver has set his hand and seal and the surety has caused its Common Seal to be affixed the day of20 in the matter ofincreased liability.

To be attached by way of endorsement to guarantee.

The liability of the surety under the guarantee has with the consent of the receiver and the surety been increased from N.....to Nfor any acts or omissions to which the guarantee relates committed by the receiver subsequent to the date the total liability of the Surety for both the guarantee and his endorsement being limited to the increased sum above stated.

Sealed with the seal of the receiver and also the Common Seal of the surety this.....day of20.....as evidence of such increased liability and the admission by the receiver and the surety respectively.
